Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation v Jacobs, et al Doc. 16

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

IN RE REFUNDS OF FILING FEES IN CASES INVOLVING THE FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION	)))	ORDER

On February 17, 2012, the Clerk's Office received guidance from the Administrative Office that the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation has a statutory exemption from federal court filing fees. As a result of this information, the clerk's office researched all cases filed in the District of Nebraska since March 17, 2004, to determine if any refunds should be authorized as a result the information received from the Administrative Office. Four cases were identified.

Therefore, IT IS ORDERED that the $350.00 filing fee be refunded to the law firms initiating lawsuits on behalf of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in the following cases:

4:10CV3182	Robey v. Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation
8:10CV437	Carter v. Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation
8:11CV106	Jacobs, et al. v. PT Holdings, et al.
8:11CV229	Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation v. Jacobs, et al.

DATED 23rd day of April, 2012.
