Knopf et al v. Esposito et al Doc. 323

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

NORMA KNOPF and MICHAEL KNOPF, Plaintiffs, -v- FRANK M. ESPOSITO, DORSEY & WHITNEY, LLP, NATHANIEL H. AKERMAN, EDWARD S. FELDMAN, and MICHAEL HAYDEN SANFORD, Defendants.	17cv5833(DLC) ORDER

DENISE COTE, District Judge:

In a letter of February 1, 2021, the plaintiffs moved to redact portions of their response to Frank Esposito's motion to stay. The plaintiffs' motion to redact does not properly identify the document to which the request refers, nor does it provide reasons for the proposed redactions. It is hereby ORDERED that, by February 3, 2021, the plaintiffs shall submit a new motion to redact that (1) properly describes the documents to which the request refers and (2) includes a description of the reasons underlying the request or incorporates the reasons set forth in another publicly filed document, such as the plaintiffs' January 19, 2021 application.

Dated: New York, New York
February 2, 2021

DENISE COTE
United States District Judge

Dockets.Justia.com