Brewer v. Commissioner Social Security Administration Doc. 24

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF SOUTH CAROLINA
GREENVILLE DIVISION

Jason B. Brewer, Plaintiff, v. Carolyn W. Colvin, Acting Commissioner of the Social Security Administration, Defendant.	)))))))))))	Civil Action No.: 6:14-cv-03980-RBH ORDER

On January 26, 2016, Plaintiff filed a motion for attorney's fees pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act,[1] asserting the position taken by Defendant in this action was not substantially justified and requesting attorney's fees in the amount of $3,861.06. See ECF No. 21. On February 11, 2016, Defendant filed a response stating she does not object to Plaintiff's requested amount of attorney's fees. See ECF No. 22.

After careful consideration, the Court GRANTS Plaintiff's motion and ORDERS Defendant to pay Plaintiff attorney's fees in the amount of $3,861.06. Pursuant to Astrue v. Ratliff, 560 U.S. 586 (2010), the payment shall be made payable to the claimant and mailed to his attorney, with a copy sent to the claimant. The fees are subject to the Treasury Offset Program[2] if the claimant owes an outstanding debt to the federal government.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
