

Cite as 2009 Ark. 440

ARKANSAS SUPREME COURT

No. CR 09-389

MANUEL ENRIQUE CAMACHO
Appellant

v.

STATE OF ARKANSAS
Appellee

Opinion Delivered September 24, 2009

PRO SE MOTION FOR EXTENSION
OF BRIEF TIME [CIRCUIT COURT OF
BENTON COUNTY, CR 2006-802(B)]

MOTION MOOT.

PER CURIAM

Appellant Manuel Enrique Camacho has lodged a pro se appeal here from the circuit court's denial of a pro se postconviction petition pursuant to Arkansas Rule of Criminal Procedure 37.1. Now before us is his pro se motion for an extension of time to file his brief-in-chief.

Appellant's brief was due to be filed in this court on May 26, 2009. Appellant timely tendered the brief on May 8, 2009, and the brief was returned to him for correction. The corrected brief was due to be filed by June 8, 2009. At the same time he tendered the brief, appellant filed the instant motion for extension of time, seeking until June 15, 2009, to file the brief. In the motion, appellant contends that he has not been supplied with a copy of his transcript that is necessary to prepare the abstract portion of the brief. Thereafter, on June 8, 2009, appellant filed his brief, abstract and addendum.

As appellant timely filed the brief, the motion for extension of time is moot.

Motion moot.