(Super. Ct. No. DP005952)

ORDER MODIFYING OPINION;
NO CHANGE IN JUDGMENT

The opinion filed in this case on November 12, 2002 is hereby ORDERED modified as follows:

1. Delete the following sentence from the third full paragraph on page 10: “This court, as did the appellate court in Samuel P., took judicial notice of the proffered documentation, perhaps improvidently.”

2. Insert the following language in place of the deleted sentence: “This court, as did the appellate court in Samuel P., took judicial notice of the proffered documentation. Unfortunately, we erred in this regard. SSA moved to introduce evidence on appeal, but did not request judicial notice. Therefore, we vacate our earlier order granting judicial notice. In addition, we deny SSA's motions to take additional evidence on appeal."

This modification does not effect a change in the judgment.
