MODIFICATION OF OPINION

THE COURT:

On the court's own motion, the opinion herein filed November 20, 2008, and published at 45 Cal.4th 243, is modified as follows:

On page 252 of 45 Cal.4th, the sentence beginning, "For example, a plaintiff suing under the Consumers Legal Remedies Act," is modified to read as follows:

For example, a plaintiff under the Consumers Legal Remedies Act (Civ. Code, § 1750 et seq.) must notify the defendant of the particular violations alleged and demand correction, repair, replacement, or other remedy at least 30 days before commencing an action for damages.

This modification does not affect the judgment.
