Before

and Young, District Judge.*

Dennis J. Cruz Pérez and Cruz, Rivera & Alvarez-Westwood on brief for appellant.

on brief for appellee.

May 18, 2006

*Of the District of Massachusetts, sitting by designation.

Per Curiam. This appeal involves a claim brought under the Federal Tort Claims Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 1346, 2671 et seq., against a doctor at a Veterans Administration clinic. After careful review of the record, we discern no clear error in any of the district court's findings. Primus v. United States, 389 F.3d 231, 237 (1st Cir. 2004). Particularly, the district court's assessment of witness credibility was hardly clearly erroneous.

Since the appellant did not include the district court's findings and rulings in his addendum and apparently deliberately refrained from citing them, we award double costs to appellee. Fed. R. App. P. 30(a)(1); 1st Cir. R. 28(a)(1), 38.

Affirmed. Double costs to appellee.
