Dismissed by unpublished per curiam opinion.

Unpublished opinions are not binding precedent in this circuit.

Decided: July 1, 2009

LaTroy Flonn Kennerly, Appellant Pro Se. William Edgar Salter, III, Assistant Attorney General, Donald John Zelenka, Deputy Assistant Attorney General, Columbia, South Carolina, for Appellees.

PER CURIAM:

LaTroy Flonn Kennerly seeks to appeal the district court's order adopting the recommendation of the magistrate and denying relief on his 28 U.S.C. § 2254 (2006) judqe petition. The order is not appealable unless a circuit justice or judge issues a certificate of appealability. 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(1) (2006). A certificate of appealability will not showing of absent "a substantial the denial of issue а constitutional right." 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(2) (2006). Α prisoner satisfies this standard by demonstrating that reasonable jurists would find that any assessment of the constitutional claims by the district court is debatable or wrong and that any dispositive procedural ruling by the district court is likewise debatable. Miller-El v. Cockrell, 537 U.S. 322, 336-38 (2003); Slack v. McDaniel, 529 U.S. 473, 484 (2000); Rose v. Lee, 252 F.3d 676, 683-84 (4th Cir. 2001). We have independently reviewed the record and conclude that Kennerly has not made the requisite showing. Accordingly, we denv a certificate of appealability and dismiss the appeal. We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before the court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
