Unpublished opinions are not binding precedent in this circuit.

PER CURIAM:

Howard Snow appeals the district court's order granting Defendants' motion to dismiss his complaint pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6). On appeal, we confine our review to the issues raised in the Appellant's informal brief. See 4th Cir. R. 34(b). Because Snow's informal brief does not challenge the basis for the district court's disposition, Snow has forfeited appellate review of the court's order. See Jackson v. Lightsey, 775 F.3d 170, 177 (4th Cir. 2014) ("The informal brief is an important document; under Fourth Circuit rules, our review is limited to issues preserved in that brief."). Accordingly, we affirm the district court's judgment. We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
