Unpublished opinions are not binding precedent in this circuit.

PER CURIAM:

Richard R. Tisdale appeals the district court's order denying relief on his civil action. On appeal, we confine our review to the issues raised in the Appellant's informal brief. See 4th Cir. R. 34(b). Because Tisdale's informal brief does not challenge the basis for the district court's disposition, Tisdale has forfeited appellate review of the court's order. See Jackson v. Lightsey, 775 F.3d 170, 177 (4th Cir. 2014) ("The informal brief is an important document; under Fourth Circuit rules, our review is limited to issues preserved in that brief."). Accordingly, we affirm the district court's judgment. We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
