Unpublished opinions are not binding precedent in this circuit.

PER CURIAM:

Theodore Bryant appeals the district court's order dismissing his employment discrimination complaint in part and granting summary judgment to Appellee on the remainder of the action. On appeal, we confine our review to the issues raised in the Appellant's brief. See 4th Cir. R. 34(b). Because Bryant's informal brief does not challenge the bases for the district court's disposition, Bryant has forfeited appellate review of the court's order. See Jackson v. Lightsey, 775 F.3d 170, 177 (4th Cir. 2014) ("The informal brief is an important document; under Fourth Circuit rules, our review is limited to issues preserved in that brief."). Accordingly, we affirm the district court's judgment. We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
