Unpublished opinions are not binding precedent in this circuit.

PER CURIAM:

Amos Jacob Arroyo appeals the district court's order dismissing his 42 U.S.C. § 1983 complaint without prejudice for failure to comply with the district court's order to submit a completed consent form for the collection of the filing fee. On appeal, we confine our review to the issues raised in the informal brief. See 4th Cir. R. 34(b). Because Arroyo's informal briefs do not challenge the basis for the district court's disposition, he has forfeited appellate review of the court's order. See Jackson v. Lightsey, 775 F.3d 170, 177 (4th Cir. 2014) ("The informal brief is an important document; under Fourth Circuit rules, our review is limited to issues preserved in that brief."). Accordingly, we affirm the district court's judgment. We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
