PER CURIAM:

Jennifer Bowles appeals the district court's order and judgment adopting the magistrate judge's report and recommendation, granting the Commissioner's motion for judgment on the pleadings, and affirming the Commissioner's decision denying disability insurance benefits. We generally do not consider issues raised for the first time on appeal, Hicks v. Ferreyra, 965 F.3d 302, 310 (4th Cir. 2020), and confine our review to the issues raised in the informal brief, see 4th Cir. R. 34(b). Many of the issues Bowles raises in her informal brief were not raised in the district court. And after reviewing the remainder of Bowles' informal brief, we conclude that she has forfeited appellate review of the district court's order by not raising any issues challenging the district court's findings or analysis. Jackson v. Lightsey, 775 F.3d 170, 177 (4th Cir. 2014) (limiting our review to issues preserved in informal brief). Accordingly, we affirm the court's order and judgment. We dispense with oral argument because the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
