PER CURIAM:

Yan Yun Shi, a native and citizen of the People's Republic of China, petitions for review of an order of the Board of Immigration Appeals ("Board") dismissing her appeal from the immigration judge's decision denying her applications for asylum and withholding of removal. We have thoroughly reviewed the record and conclude that the evidence does not compel a ruling contrary to any of the administrative factual findings, see 8 U.S.C. § 1252(b)(4)(B), and that substantial evidence supports the denial of relief, see INS v. Elias-Zacarias, 502 U.S. 478, 481 (1992). We also conclude that the Board did not err in not considering whether Shi's asylum application was timely filed and in finding that the immigration judge's citation to an incorrect standard was harmless error. Accordingly, we deny the petition for review. We deny as moot the joint motion to submit the petition on the briefs without oral argument. We conclude that the facts and legal contentions are adequately presented in the materials before this court and argument would not aid the decisional process.
