ORDER

October 10, 2017

Before

ANN CLAIRE WILLIAMS, Circuit Judge

No. 16-1784	FLAVIANO VICTORIA-FAUSTINO, Petitioner v. JEFFERSON B. SESSIONS III, Attorney General of the United States, Respondent
Originating Case Information:
Agency Case No: A208-506-162 Department of Homeland Security

Upon consideration of the RESPONDENT'S UNOPPOSED MOTION TO AMEND OPINION, filed on August 29, 2017, by counsel for the respondent,

IT IS ORDERED that the motion is GRANTED. The court's opinion dated August 1, 2017, is AMENDED as follows:

1) On page 3 of the slip opinion, which reads that the court remands "to the Board of Immigration Appeals for further proceedings," "Board of Immigration Appeals" is replaced with "Department of Homeland Security."

2) On page 7, footnote 1 of the slip opinion, which reads that the court must entertain Victoria-Faustino's arguments "even though he did not raise them to the Board," "Board" is replaced with "DHS."

3) On page 8 of the slip opinion, which reads that "the dissent contends that this would open the door for any legal challenge that was not raised to the Board to be heard on appeal,"

"Board" is replaced with "DHS."

4) On page 13 of the slip opinion, which reads that the court "must remand this petition to the Board for further proceedings," "Board" is replaced with "DHS."
