Before MURPHY, BEAM, and COLLOTON, Circuit Judges.

PER CURIAM.

Nasir Jaleel Rahim appeals the sentence imposed by the district court¹ upon his guilty plea to drug and firearm charges. Rahim was sentenced as a career offender under U.S.S.G. § 4B1.1(a) (defendant is career offender if, among other things, he has at least 2 prior convictions of either crime of violence or controlled substance offense), based in part on a prior state felony conviction for auto theft. Rahim urges this court to revisit our holding that auto theft is a crime of violence for purposes of
