PER CURIAM.

Katherine B. Warren appeals from the district court's<sup>1</sup> entry of summary judgment in favor of defendants in her personal injury action. The district court held that Warren failed to raise genuine issues of material fact supporting her contention that the "unsound mind" provision of Tennessee's tolling statute excused her failure to file within the one-year statute of limitations. See Tenn. Code Ann. § 28-1-106. Having carefully reviewed the record de novo, see Jacob-Mua v. Veneman, 289 F.3d 517, 520 (8th Cir. 2002), we find the district court’s analysis to be correct, thorough, and well-reasoned. Accordingly, we affirm. See 8th Cir. R. 47B.
