MEMORANDUM*

Appeal from the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Washington
Fred Van Sickle, District Judge, Presiding

Submitted September 22, 2010

Before: WALLACE, HAWKINS, and THOMAS, Circuit Judges.

The district court did not clearly err by granting the petition because John Schlabach (“Schlabach”) failed to rebut the government’s showing that the summons was issued in good faith. See Stewart v. United States, 511 F.3d 1251, 1254-55 (9th Cir. 2008) (taxpayer’s heavy burden to show abuse of process or lack of good faith once government makes prima facie showing summons was issued in good faith).

Schlabach's remaining contentions are unpersuasive.

AFFIRMED.
