JEFFREY A. DICKERSON,

MEMORANDUM*

Petitioner-Appellant.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the District of Nevada
Gloria M. Navarro, Chief Judge, Presiding

Submitted January 18, 2017

Before: TROTT, TASHIMA, and CALLAHAN, Circuit Judges.

Jeffrey A. Dickerson, an attorney, appeals pro se from the district court's order imposing reciprocal discipline on him on the basis of his suspension from the Nevada State Bar. We have jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1291. We review for an abuse of discretion, In re Corrinet, 645 F.3d 1141, 1145 (9th Cir. 2011), and we affirm.

The district court did not abuse its discretion in imposing reciprocal discipline against Dickerson because he failed to establish by clear and convincing evidence that he was deprived of due process, that there was insufficient proof of the misconduct that led to his suspension from the bar, or that grave injustice would result from the imposition of reciprocal discipline. See In re Kramer, 282 F.3d 721, 724-25 (9th Cir. 2002) (setting forth the limited circumstances under which an attorney subject to discipline by another court can avoid a federal court's imposition of reciprocal discipline, and setting forth attorney's burden of proof); see also D. Nev. L.R. IA 11-7(e)(3) (an attorney respondent "must set forth facts establishing one or more of the [elements precluding reciprocal discipline] by clear and convincing evidence" (alteration added)).

We reject as without merit Dickerson's contention that he district court violated his right to due process.

AFFIRMED.
