MEMORANDUM*

MARTIN NAUGHTON, Dr.; et al.,

Defendants-Appellees.

Appeal from the United States District Court for the District of Nevada
Robert Clive Jones, District Judge, Presiding

Submitted July 8, 2020

Before: SCHROEDER, CANBY, and TROTT, Circuit Judges.

Nevada state prisoner Gregory N. Leonard appeals pro se from the district court's judgment dismissing his 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action alleging claims for deliberate indifference to serious medical needs and equal protection. We have jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1291. We review de novo a dismissal under 28 U.S.C. § 1915A for failure to state a claim. Wilhelm v. Rotman, 680 F.3d 1113, 1118 (9th Cir. 2012). We reverse and remand.

The district court dismissed Leonard’s action because Leonard failed to allege facts sufficient to state a plausible claim. However, Leonard alleged that defendants discontinued his pain medication and prescribed other medication that was known to be harmful to dialysis patients, despite Leonard’s objections, and that Leonard suffered harm as a result. These allegations, liberally construed, are “sufficient to warrant ordering [defendants] to file an answer.” Id. at 1116. We reverse the judgment and remand for further proceedings.

REVERSED and REMANDED.
