UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
WESTERN DIVISION

DENISE L. LOWRY,	)	No. CV 12-10498-VBK
Plaintiff,	)	MEMORANDUM OPINION
	)	AND ORDER
v.	)
	)	(Social Security Case)
CAROLYN W. COLVIN, Acting	)
Commissioner of Social	)
Security,	)
Defendant.	)

This matter is before the Court for review of the decision by the Commissioner of Social Security denying Plaintiff's application for disability benefits. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §636(c), the parties have consented that the case may be handled by the Magistrate Judge. The action arises under 42 U.S.C. §405(g), which authorizes the Court to enter judgment upon the pleadings and transcript of the record before the Commissioner. The parties have filed the Joint Stipulation ("JS"), and the Commissioner has filed the certified Administrative Record ("AR").

Plaintiff raises the following issues:

1. Whether the Administrative Law Judge ("ALJ") erred in the

1 assessment of Plaintiff's physical residual functional
2 capacity;

3 2. Whether the ALJ erred in relying on the vocational expert's
4 response to an incomplete hypothetical question; and

5 3. Whether the ALJ erred in the credibility findings.

6 (JS at 2-3.)

8 This Memorandum Opinion will constitute the Court's findings of 9 fact and conclusions of law. After reviewing the matter, the Court
10 concludes that the decision of the Commissioner must be affirmed.

11
12 I

13 THE ALJ CORRECTLY ASSESSED THE MEDICAL SOURCES IN THE RECORD TO
14 DETERMINE PLAINTIFF'S PHYSICAL RESIDUAL FUNCTIONAL CAPACITY

15 Plaintiff asserts error in the ALJ's determination of her
16 physical residual functional capacity ("physical RFC") because the ALJ
17 failed to incorporate many of the limitations assessed by consultative
18 examiner ("CE") Steven Schwartz. Citing the ALJ's Decision (AR 10-
19 21), Plaintiff contends that the ALJ essentially adopted Dr. Schwartz'
20 findings by assigning them "enhanced weight," and for that reason, the 21 ALJ was mandated to accept all of the physical limitations assessed by
22 Dr. Schwartz. (JS at 3-4, citing AR 471.)

23 Plaintiff's argument fails in large part because she misconstrues
24 the language of the Decision, and thus, artificially limits the 25 medical evidence which the ALJ in fact did consider in reaching his 26 Decision. The ALJ made an assessment of Plaintiff's physical RFC, and 27 specifically stated the following:

28 "The findings regarding [Plaintiff's] residual

1 functional capacity are supported by the medical evidence of
2 record, including but not limited to, the reports of the
3 consultant examiner and the medical consultant. The
4 undersigned gives enhanced weight to these assessments, ..."
5 (Emphasis added, AR 17.)

7 Thus, the ALJ did not give enhanced weight only to Dr. Schwartz'
8 conclusions, but based his determination of Plaintiff's physical RFC
9 on all of the medical evidence of record.

10 The Commissioner points out that there is evidence in the record
11 from Agreed Medical Evaluator ("AME") Dr. Edwin Haronian, who examined
12 Plaintiff before her date last insured ("DLI"). (See AR 284-298.) The 13 Commissioner points out that Dr. Haronian found that Plaintiff was 14 neurologically intact and had full motor strength and normal
15 sensation. (JS at 8, citing AR 295.) The Commissioner notes that Dr.
16 Haronian was of the opinion that Plaintiff was only precluded from 17 "heavy" work. (AR 296.) Plaintiff replies to this argument by 18 characterizing Dr. Haronian's report as "irrelevant," because, she 19 claims, the ALJ "does not even mention Dr. Haronian's report in his 20 decision." (JS at 10.) This is not the case. In determining
21 Plaintiff's physical RFC, the ALJ in fact did review Dr. Haronian's
22 report, as referenced directly in the Decision, where several
23 references are made to Dr. Haronian's report, including a summary
24 contained in that report by medical evaluator Dr. David Field. (See Ar 25 at 14.) But Plaintiff persists in arguing that the ALJ erred by not 26 including all of the limitations set forth in Dr. Schwartz' report.
27 (See JS at 11.) Again, this is not true. It is the ALJ's function to 28 weigh conflicting evidence. See Tommasetti v. Astrue, 533 F.3d 1035,

1 1041-42 (9th Cir. 2008), Magallanes v. Bowen, 881 F.2d 747, 750 (9th
2 Cir. 1989). With regard to the opinions of Dr. Schwartz and Dr. Rose,
3 the ALJ extensively discussed them in his Decision (AR 17), and as the
4 ALJ noted, these opinions were rendered three years after the DLI.
5 Thus, the ALJ adequately examined these opinions in light of the 6 weight he accorded them, and in light of all the medical evidence in
7 the record, which the ALJ clearly read and analyzed. The Court
8 concludes that the ALJ adequately and sufficiently weighed conflicting
9 evidence and articulated sufficient reasons in his Decision for 10 arriving at Plaintiff's physical RFC.

11 The Court need not devote substantial attention to Issue No. 2,
12 which is controlled by the Court's determination of Plaintiff's first 13 issue. In Issue No. 2, Plaintiff asserts that the ALJ erred in 14 relying upon an incomplete hypothetical question posed to the 15 vocational expert ("VE"), because the hypothetical omitted the work-
16 related limitations assessed by Dr. Schwartz. But as the Court has 17 indicated, the ALJ was not required to accept all of the limitations
18 assessed by Dr. Schwartz. For that reason, Plaintiff's second issue
19 has no merit.

20 21 II

22 THE ALJ PROPERLY DEPRECIATED PLAINTIFF'S CREDIBILITY

23 In Plaintiff's third issue, she contends that the ALJ failed to 24 provide any clear and convincing reasons based on substantial evidence
25 to dismiss her alleged pain and functional limitations as she 26 described them. (See JS at 14, citing Smolen v. Chater, 80 F.3d 1273, 27 1281 (9th Cir. 1996).) In response, the Commissioner contends that 28 the ALJ's Decision in fact does set forth the evidence on which the
