Civil Action No. 09 2215

MEMORANDUM OPINION

This civil action, brought pro se, is before the Court on its initial review of the complaint and application to proceed in forma pauperis. The application will be granted and the complaint will be dismissed on the ground of res judicata.

Plaintiff is a federal prisoner incarcerated in Jesup, Georgia. He challenges as unconstitutional the Bureau of Prisons’s policy “requiring ‘TRULINCS’ Generated Outgoing Mailing Labels.” Compl. at 1. Plaintiff acknowledges that the United States District Court for the Southern District of Georgia has dismissed his case raising the same claim against Bureau of Prison employees. See Compl. at 2; Robinson v. Coughlin, Civ. Action No. 209-089 (S.D. Ga.) (Order of August 18, 2009) (adopting Magistrate Judge’s Report and Recommendation of August 4, 2009) (dismissing case for failure to state a claim upon which relief may be granted).

Under the principle of res judicata, a final judgment on the merits in one action “bars any further claim based on the same ‘nucleus of facts’” Page v. United States, 729 F.2d 818, 820 (D.C. Cir. 1984) (quoting Expert Elec., Inc. v. Levine, 554 F.2d 1227, 1234 (D.C. Cir. 1977)) and involving the same parties or their privies. Taylor v. Blakey, 490 F.3d 965, 969-70 (D.C. Cir. 2007) (citing cases). Res judicata bars not only the relitigation of claims that were previously raised, but also of claims that “could have been raised in that action.” Apotex, Inc. v. Food & Drug Admin., 393 F.3d 210, 218 (D.C. Cir. 2004) (quoting Drake v. FAA, 291 F.3d 59, 66 (D.C. Cir. 2002)) (emphasis in original). Thus, plaintiff may not circumvent this bar by raising a new legal theory. Id. Because the underlying facts of this civil action existed at the time of the prior civil action in Georgia, plaintiff is foreclosed from litigating the claim anew in this Court. A separate Order of dismissal accompanies this Memorandum Opinion.
