

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF LOUISIANA

JERALD McCULLOUGH

CIVIL ACTION

VERSUS

NO. 09-6359

THE INSURANCE COMPANY
OF THE STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA, ET AL.

SECTION "N" (4)

ORDER AND REASONS

IT IS ORDERED that Plaintiff's Objections to Exhibits (Rec. Doc. 29) are OVERRULED IN PART and PARTLY MOOT. Plaintiff's objections are moot to the extent that Plaintiff objects to the admission of evidence regarding his discharge from the military. Defendants indicated on page 1 of Rec. Doc. 25 that they will not seek to introduce evidence relating to Plaintiff's discharge from the military. As for Plaintiff's remaining objections (regarding his use of marijuana and his MySpace page), those objections are overruled for the reasons previously given by this Court in the October 4, 2010 Order and Reasons (Rec. Doc. 26) relating to the same topics.

New Orleans, Louisiana, this 14th day of October, 2010
