1 Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant International Payment Advisors LTD (“IPA”), Counter-
2 Defendant Marc Maxwell (“Maxwell”), and Defendant/Counterclaimant Global Merchant Advisors,
3 LLC, f/k/a Paysafe Services (US) LLC (“Paysafe/GMA”), collectively referred to as the “Parties”
4 and each individually as a “Party,” by and through their respective counsel of record, stipulate and
5 request that (1) the dispositive motion deadline of December 7, 2021 be continued for two (2) weeks,
6 to December 21, 2021; (2) the deadline to oppose dispositive motions be set for January 25, 2022;
7 and (3) the deadline to submit replies in support of dispositive motions be set for February 15, 2022.
8 Pursuant to LR 26-3, the Parties set forth the following, which they submit constitutes good cause for 9 the requested extension.

10 A. GOOD CAUSE EXISTS TO EXTEND THE DISPOSITIVE MOTION DEADLINE

11 The Parties have worked cooperatively and diligently to complete fact discovery, which has 12 now closed. The Parties have conducted eighteen (18) depositions and produced more than 2 million
13 pages in this action. Throughout this process, the parties have worked cooperatively, such that the 14 foregoing was accomplished not only during the pandemic, but without a single motion being filed
15 with this Court to resolve any discovery dispute.

16 The Parties have each designated initial and rebuttal expert witnesses and exchanged reports.
17 One of the parties’ experts has had a family emergency that has required the parties to vacate and 18 reschedule his deposition. The Parties thus require additional time to do so and to obtain and review
19 that transcript in time to enable the Parties to prepare dispositive motions, if any. For these reasons,
20 the Parties request an extension of the dispositive motion to deadline by two (2) weeks to Tuesday,
21 December 21, 2021.

22 Moreover, in order to accommodate the parties’ schedules during the holiday period, they 23 stipulate and request that the Court set the deadline to oppose dispositive motions for January 25,
24 2022 and the deadline to submit replies in support of dispositive motions for February 15, 2022.

13 production totaling over 7,500 documents and nearly 40,000 pages.

14 • Paysafe/GMA has made 23 document productions totaling over 470,000 documents
15 and comprised of more than 2 million pages. Paysafe/GMA's most recent major production was on 16 January 5, 2021, wherein it produced over 18,000 additional documents containing additional search
17 terms requested by Plaintiff. Paysafe also produced over 390,000 documents in rolling productions
18 during the month of December 2020 and the first days of January 2021 that had been re-Bates
19 numbered at Plaintiff's request. Paysafe/GMA has most recently produced documents in response to 20 the meet and confer process on April 26, 2021.

21 • Each Party has noticed and taken depositions. The Parties have taken eighteen (18)
22 fact and Party witness depositions, two (2) expert depositions, and are conferring to schedule one (1)
23 more expert deposition.

24 Throughout, the Parties have worked through discovery issues and scheduling issues, and to 25 date have not had to file a motion with the Court.

26 C. DISCOVERY TO BE COMPLETED

27 The Parties intend to take one more expert deposition in the coming weeks. Though the Parties
28 have been, and will continue to, diligently work through these issues, they note that no trial date has

1 been set in this matter.

2 D. REASONS FOR REQUESTED EXTENSION

3 This lawsuit relates to the performance of a contract for services in the electronic payment
4 processing space over a multi-year period. As is sometimes the case with disputes between 5 sophisticated parties for years-long service contracts, the potential world of responsive documents is 6 large; in this case, in the range of millions of pages. The volume of documents at issue in this lawsuit
7 presented more complicated and complex discovery issues which naturally slowed the process of 8 discovery. The Parties propounded a few hundred individual discovery requests on one another, in 9 total, and have spent substantial time endeavoring to resolve objections to those requests without 10 involving the Court. To date, and based on their efforts, the Parties have not been required to seek 11 Court intervention to resolve a single dispute.

12 Many of the witnesses were located out-of-state and, with respect to some of Paysafe/GMA's
13 executives, out of the country. As such, it took additional time and effort to coordinate depositions.
14 Some of the witnesses are no longer employed by Paysafe/GMA, and as such, third-party subpoenas
15 and additional coordination were also required.

16 Good cause exists for this extension. The Parties have cooperatively noticed and taken
17 eighteen (18) fact witness depositions and two (2) expert depositions. The parties also recently
18 participated in a mediation, and scheduling issues with that mediator contributed to the need for a
19 prior brief requested extension. Lastly, there is one (1) more expert deposition that needs to be taken,
20 and it was recently postponed due to a family emergency with the expert. The current dispositive
21 motion deadline of December 7, 2021 would not allow sufficient time to take the remaining expert's 22 deposition and for post expert deposition activities, such as obtaining the transcript, time for the 23 expert to review, correct, and sign the transcript, and time to draft dispositive motions with the benefit
24 of all expert depositions and transcripts.

25 This request for extension is made in good faith and, the Parties submit, good cause exists to 26 extend the dispositive motion deadline.

7 2022.

8 (b) Joint Pretrial Order. The Joint Pretrial Order shall be filed on or before January 21,
9 2022. Pursuant to LR 26-1(b)(5), in the event dispositive motions are filed, the date for filing the 10 Joint Pretrial Order shall be suspended until thirty (30) days after the entry of a decision on the
