20 STIPULATED CONFIDENTIALITY
 21 AND PROTECTIVE ORDER

22 Plaintiff Christopher Basile (“Basile”) and defendant Kirsten Novak (“Novak” and with 23 Basile, the “Parties”), by and through their respective counsel of record, hereby stipulate, agree 24 and respectfully request that in order to facilitate the exchange of information and documents 25 which may be subject to confidentiality limitations on disclosure due to federal laws, state laws, 26 and privacy rights, an order be entered as follows:

27 1. In this Stipulation and Protective Order, the words set forth below shall have the 28 following meanings:

a. “Proceeding” means the proceeding entitled Christopher Basile adv. Kirsten Novak, Case No. 2:19-cv-00429-JAD-BNW.

c. “Material” means any documents, testimony, information or tangible items produced, provided or created in connection with this Proceeding.

d. “Confidential Material” means any documents, testimony, information or tangible items produced, provided or created in connection with this Proceeding that are

1 reasonably and in good faith believed by a Designating Party to contain trade secrets, proprietary 2 business information, competitively sensitive information, personal or private financial 3 information, health information, or any other information the disclosure of which would, in the 4 reasonable and good faith judgment of the Designating Party, be detrimental to its livelihood and 5 reputation, or the conduct of its business.

6 e. “Designating Party” means the Party that designates Material as 7 “Confidential.”

8 f. “Disclose” or “Disclosed” or “Disclosure” means to produce, provide, 9 reveal, divulge, give, or make available Materials, or any part thereof, or any information 10 contained therein, in connection with this Proceeding.

11 g. “Document” means any discoverable item pursuant to the Federal Rules of 12 Civil Procedure that has been or will be produced (i) before discovery for settlement purposes, or 13 in discovery in this Proceeding by any person, and (ii) any copies, reproductions, or summaries of 14 all or any part of the foregoing.

15 h. “Information” means the content of documents, testimony or tangible 16 items.

17 i. “Testimony” means all depositions, declarations, affidavits, or other 18 testimony taken during or generated in connection with this Proceeding.

19 2. All material received by any Party pursuant to a discovery request, subpoena, court 20 order, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure, or by any other means within the context of this 21 Proceeding, whether such Material is designated as Confidential Material or not, shall be used 22 solely for the purposes of the prosecution, defense and/or settlement of this Proceeding, including 23 any appeals, and shall not be used for any other purpose whatsoever, including, without limitation, 24 any other litigation or proceedings or any business, competitive or private or purpose or function.
25 However, notwithstanding any other paragraph of this Stipulation and Protective Order, no Party 26 shall be restricted by this Stipulation and Protective Order in dealing as it chooses with any 27 material that was rightfully in its possession prior to receiving such material in discovery in this 28 proceeding

1 3. The Designating Party shall have the right to designate as “Confidential” any 2 documents, testimony, information or tangible items that the Designating Party reasonably and in 3 good faith believes to contain trade secrets, proprietary business information, competitively 4 sensitive information, personal or private financial information, or health information.

5 4. The entry of this Stipulation and Protective Order does not alter, waive, modify, or 6 abridge any right, privilege or protection otherwise available to any Party with respect to the 7 discovery of matters, including but not limited to any Party’s right to assert the attorney-client
8 privilege, the attorney work product doctrine, or other privileges, or any Party’s right to contest 9 any such assertion.

10 5. Any documents, testimony, information or tangible items to be designated as 11 “Confidential” must be clearly so designated before the document, testimony, information or 12 tangible item is disclosed or produced. The means of designating documents, testimony, 13 information and tangible items as confidential is as follows:

14 a. For documents (apart from transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or 15 trial proceedings), the Designating Party must affix the legend “Confidential” on each page of any 16 document containing such designated Confidential Material. The “Confidential” legend should 17 not obscure or interfere with the legibility of the designated documents.

18 b. For testimony given in depositions, all transcripts of depositions and 19 exhibits thereto shall, in their entirety, be treated as Confidential Material for a period of 30 days 20 after such transcripts are actually received by counsel for each of the parties, and the initial 21 transcripts (including the exhibits thereto) prepared by the court reporter shall be designated 22 Confidential Material and shall contain the legend “Confidential” at the top of each page. During 23 the 30-day period following receipt of a transcript by counsel for each of the parties, the transcripts 24 and exhibits thereto may be designated in whole or in part as Confidential Material pursuant to 25 the terms of this Stipulation and Protective Order by notifying all counsel in writing. At the 26 conclusion of the 30-day period, the court reporter shall prepare final transcripts in which the non-27 Confidential and Confidential sections are separately bound, unless during the 30-day period the 28 Parties agree that it shall be unnecessary for such final transcripts to be prepared. Additionally,

1 during a deposition, counsel for a party or the witness may designate the testimony or the exhibits
2 being discussed as “Confidential” based on the reasonable and good faith view that the testimony 3 and/or exhibits contain trade secrets, proprietary business information, competitively sensitive 4 information, personal or private financial information, or health information. If such a designation 5 is made during a deposition, only the court reporter and those persons who are authorized by the 6 terms of this Stipulation and Protective Order may be present.

7 c. For information produced in some form other than documents, and for any 8 other tangible items, including, without limitation, compact discs or DVDs, the Designating Party 9 must affix in a prominent place on the exterior of the container or containers in which the 10 information or item is stored the legend “Confidential.” If only portions of the information or 11 tangible item warrant protection, the Designating Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the 12 “Confidential” portions by means of a letter to all counsel.

13 6. The inadvertent production by any of the undersigned Parties or non-Parties to this 14 Proceeding of any document, testimony, information or tangible item during discovery in the 15 Proceeding without a “Confidential” designation, shall be without prejudice to any claim that such 16 item is “Confidential” and such Party shall not be held to have waived any rights by such 17 inadvertent production. In the event that any document, testimony, information or tangible item 18 that is subject to a “Confidential” designation is inadvertently produced without such designation, 19 the Party or non-Party that inadvertently produced the document shall give written notice of such 20 inadvertent production within twenty (20) days of discovery of the inadvertent production (the 21 “Inadvertent Production Notice”), together with a further copy of the subject document, testimony, 22 information or tangible item designated as “Confidential.” Upon receipt of such Inadvertent 23 Production Notice, the Party that received the inadvertently produced document, testimony, 24 information or tangible item shall promptly destroy the inadvertently produced document, 25 testimony, information or tangible item and all copies thereof, or, at the expense of the producing 26 Party or non-Party, shall return such together with all copies of such document, testimony, 27 information or tangible item to counsel for the producing Party or non-Party and retain only the 28 version of the document, testimony, information or tangible item that contains the “Confidential”

1 legend. Should the receiving Party choose to destroy such inadvertently produced documents, 2 testimony, information or tangible items, the receiving Party shall notify the producing Party or 3 non-Party in writing of such destruction within ten (10) days of receipt of the Inadvertent 4 Production Notice. This provision is not intended to apply to any inadvertent production of any 5 information protected by attorney-client or work product privileges. In the event that this 6 provision conflicts with any applicable law regarding waiver of confidentiality through the 7 inadvertent production of documents, testimony, information or tangible items, such law shall 8 govern.

9 7. In the event that counsel for a Party receiving documents, testimony, information 10 or tangible items designated as “Confidential” objects to such designation with respect to any or 11 all of such items, said counsel shall advise counsel for the Designating Party, in writing, of such 12 objections, the specific documents, testimony, information or tangible items to which each 13 objection pertains, and the specific reasons and support for such objections (the “Designation 14 Objections”). Counsel for the Designating Party shall have five (5) business days from receipt of 15 the written Designation Objections to either (a) agree in writing to de-designate documents, 16 testimony, information or tangible items pursuant to any or all of the Designation Objections, or 17 (b) indicate in writing that the Designating Party continues to assert that such items are properly 18 designated as “Confidential,” and set forth the basis for the designation. If counsel for the Party 19 that objected to the “Confidential” designation continues to object to that designation, then such 20 Party may move for an order determining that the documents, testimony, information or tangible 21 items were not properly designated (the “De-Designation Motion”). Pending a resolution of the 22 De-Designation Motion by the Court, any and all existing designations on the documents, 23 testimony, information or tangible items at issue in such motion shall remain in place.

24 8. Access to and/or Disclosure of Confidential Materials designated as “Confidential” 25 shall be permitted only to the following persons:

- 26 a. this Court and its staff;
- 27 b. the attorneys of record in the Proceeding and their affiliated attorneys, 28 paralegals, clerical and secretarial staff;

1 c. in-house counsel to the undersigned Parties and the paralegal, clerical and 2 secretarial staff employed by such counsel, provided, however, that each non-lawyer given access 3 to Confidential Materials shall be advised that such Materials are being disclosed pursuant to, and 4 are subject to, the terms of this Stipulation and Protective Order and that such Materials may not 5 be Disclosed other than pursuant to its terms;

6 d. the Parties and those officers, directors, partners, members, employees and 7 agents of all non-designating Parties that counsel for such Parties deems necessary to aid counsel
8 in the prosecution and defense of this Proceeding; provided, however, that prior to the disclosure 9 of Confidential Materials to any such officer, director, partner, member, employee or agent,
10 counsel for the Party making the disclosure shall deliver a copy of this Stipulation and Protective 11 Order to such person, shall explain that such person is bound to follow the terms of the Stipulation
12 and Protective Order, and shall secure the signature of such person on a statement in the form 13 attached hereto as Exhibit A. Counsel making disclosure of Confidential Material to any such 14 officer, director, partner, member, employee or agent of a non-designating Party shall retain the 15 original executed copy of said statement until no less than one year following the termination of 16 this litigation.

17 e. court reporters in this Proceeding (whether at depositions, hearings, or any 18 other proceeding);

19 f. any deposition, trial or hearing witness in the Proceeding who previously 20 has had access to the Confidential Materials, or who is currently or was previously an officer, 21 director, partner, member, employee or agent of an entity that has had access to the Confidential
22 Materials;

23 g. any deposition or non-trial hearing witness in the Proceeding who 24 previously did not have access to the Confidential Materials; provided, however, that each such 25 witness given access to Confidential Materials shall sign Exhibit A attached hereto and be advised 26 that such Confidential Materials are being disclosed pursuant to, and are subject to the terms of, 27 this Stipulation and Protective Order and that such Confidential Materials may not be disclosed 28 other than pursuant to its terms;

1 h. outside experts or consultants (including, without limitation, any imaging 2 or other litigation support vendor) retained by the undersigned Parties or their counsel in 3 connection with the Proceeding, whether or not retained to testify at any oral hearing; provided, 4 however, that prior to the disclosure of Confidential Materials to any such expert or consultant,
5 counsel for the Party making the disclosure shall deliver a copy of this Stipulation and Protective 6 Order to such person, shall explain its terms to such person, and shall secure the signature of such 7 person on a statement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A. It shall be the obligation of 8 counsel, upon learning of any breach or threatened breach of this Stipulation and Protective Order 9 by any such expert or consultant, to promptly notify counsel for the Designating Party of such 10 breach or threatened breach; and 11 i. any other person that the Designating Party agrees to in writing.

12 9. Any Party to the Proceeding (or other person subject to the terms of this Stipulation 13 and Protective Order) may ask the Court, after appropriate notice to the other Parties to the 14 Proceeding, to modify or grant relief from any provision of this Stipulation and Protective Order.

15 10. Entering into, agreeing to, and/or complying with the terms of this Stipulation and 16 Protective Order shall not:

17 a. operate as an admission by any person that any particular document, 18 testimony, information or tangible item marked “Confidential” contains trade secrets, proprietary 19 business information, competitively sensitive information, personal or private financial 20 information, or health information; or 21 b. prejudice in any way the right of any Party (or any other person subject to 22 the terms of this Stipulation and Protective Order):

23 i. to seek a determination by the Court of whether any particular item 24 of Confidential Material should be subject to protection as “Confidential” under 25 the terms of this Stipulation and Protective Order; or 26 ii. to seek relief from the Court on appropriate notice to all other 27 Parties to the Proceeding from any provision(s) of this Stipulation and Protective 28

1 Order, either generally or as to any particular document, testimony, information or 2 tangible item.

3 11. Any Party to the Proceeding who has not executed this Stipulation and Protective 4 Order as of the time it is presented to the Court for signature may thereafter become a Party to this 5 Stipulation and Protective Order by its counsel's signing and dating a copy thereof and filing the 6 same with the Court, and serving copies of such signed and dated copy upon the other Parties to 7 this Stipulation and Protective Order.

8 12. Any documents, testimony, information or tangible item that may be produced by 9 a non-Party witness in discovery in this Proceeding, whether pursuant to subpoena or otherwise, 10 may be designated by such non-Party as "Confidential" under the terms of this Stipulation and 11 Protective Order, and any such designation by a non-Party shall have the same force and effect, 12 and create the same duties and obligations, as if made by one of the undersigned Parties hereto.
13 Any such designation shall also function as a consent by such producing non-Party to the authority 14 of the Court in the Proceeding to resolve and conclusively determine any motion or other 15 application made by any person or Party with respect to such designation, or any other matter 16 otherwise arising under this Stipulation and Protective Order.

17 13. If any person subject to this Stipulation and Protective Order who has custody of 18 any Confidential Materials receives a subpoena or other process ("Subpoena") from any 19 government or other person or entity demanding production of Confidential Materials, the 20 recipient of the Subpoena shall (except as otherwise prohibited by law or Court order) promptly 21 give notice of the same by electronic mail transmission, followed by either express mail or 22 overnight delivery to counsel of record for the Designating Party, and shall furnish such counsel 23 with a copy of the Subpoena. Upon receipt of this notice, the Designating Party may, in its sole 24 discretion and at its own cost, move to quash or limit the Subpoena, otherwise oppose production
25 of the Confidential Materials, and/or seek to obtain confidential treatment of such Confidential 26 Materials from the subpoenaing person or entity to the fullest extent available under law. The 27 recipient of the Subpoena may not produce any documents, testimony, information or tangible 28 items pursuant to the Subpoena prior to the date specified for production on the Subpoena.

1 14. Nothing in this Stipulation and Protective Order shall be construed to preclude 2 either Party from asserting in good faith that certain Confidential Materials require additional 3 protection. The Parties shall meet and confer to agree upon the terms of such additional protection.

4 15. If, after execution of this Stipulation and Protective Order, any Confidential
5 Materials submitted by a Designating Party under the terms of this Stipulation and Protective 6 Order is disclosed by a non-Designating Party to any person other than in the manner authorized 7 by this Stipulation and Protective Order, the non-Designating Party responsible for the disclosure 8 shall bring all pertinent facts relating to the disclosure of such Confidential Materials to the 9 immediate attention of the Designating Party.

10 16. In the event anyone shall violate or threaten to violate any terms of this Stipulation 11 and Protective Order, the aggrieved Party may seek damages and injunctive relief, and it shall not 12 be a defense thereto that the aggrieved Party possesses an adequate remedy at law.

13 17. All persons subject to the terms of this Stipulation and Protective Order agree that 14 this Court shall retain jurisdiction over them for the purpose of enforcing this Stipulation and 15 Protective Order.

16 18. This Stipulation and Protective Order is entered into without prejudice to the right 17 of any Party to knowingly waive the applicability of this Stipulation and Protective Order to any 18 Confidential Materials designated by that Party. If the Designating Party uses Confidential 19 Materials in a non-Confidential manner, then the Designating Party shall advise that the 20 designation no longer applies.

21 19. Any Party who seeks to make any document or information designated 22 “Confidential” a part of the record shall file a motion with the Court seeking an order permitting 23 the document to be filed under seal. If the Court should deny any such motion, the parties shall 24 use their good-faith efforts to protect the “Confidential” information pursuant to this Stipulated 25 Protective Order. A Party seeking to seal documents shall submit a separate memorandum of 26 points and authorities that presents articulated facts identifying compelling reasons for non-27 disclosure that are sufficient to overcome the strong presumption of public access to information 28 in a court proceeding. Any application to seal documents shall be served on opposing counsel

1 together with the documents proposed to be filed under seal. Such service on opposing counsel 2 shall be made timely so as to allow opposing counsel ample time to respond without causing a 3 delay in the preceding.

4 20. The Parties shall meet and confer regarding the procedures for use of Confidential
5 Materials at trial and shall move the Court for entry of an appropriate order.

6 21. Nothing in this Stipulation and Protective Order shall affect the admissibility into 7 evidence of Confidential Materials, or abridge the rights of any person to seek judicial review or 8 to pursue other appropriate judicial action with respect to any ruling made by the Court concerning 9 the issue of the status of Confidential Materials.

10 22. This Stipulation and Protective Order shall continue to be binding after the 11 conclusion of this Proceeding and all subsequent proceedings arising from this Proceeding, except 12 that a Party may seek the written permission of the Designating Party or may move the Court for 13 relief from the provisions of this Stipulation and Protective Order. To the extent permitted by law, 14 the Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce, modify, or reconsider this Stipulation and Protective 15 Order, even after the Proceeding is terminated.

16 23. Upon written request made within thirty (30) days after the settlement or other 17 termination of the Proceeding, the undersigned Parties shall have thirty (30) days to either (a)
18 promptly return to counsel for each Designating Party all Confidential Materials and all copies 19 thereof (except that counsel for each Party may maintain in its files, in continuing compliance 20 with the terms of this Stipulation and Protective Order, all work product, one copy of each 21 pleading filed with the Court, and one copy of each deposition together with the exhibits marked 22 at the deposition), (b) agree with counsel for the Designating Party upon appropriate methods and 23 certification of destruction or other disposition of such Confidential Materials, or (c) as to any 24 documents, testimony, information or tangible items not addressed by sub-paragraphs (a) and (b), 25 file a motion seeking a Court order regarding proper preservation of such Confidential Materials.
26 To the extent permitted by law the Court shall retain continuing jurisdiction to review and rule 27 upon the motion referred to in sub-paragraph (c) herein.

EXHIBIT A

CERTIFICATION RE: CONFIDENTIAL DISCOVERY MATERIALS

I hereby acknowledge that I, _____ [NAME],

[POSITION AND EMPLOYER], am about to receive Confidential Materials supplied in connection with the proceeding entitled Christopher Basile adv. Kirsten Novak, Case No. 2:19-cv-00429-JAD-BNW. I certify that I understand that the Confidential Materials are provided to me subject to the terms and restrictions of the Stipulation and Protective Order filed in this Proceeding. I have been given a copy of the Stipulation and Protective Order, I have read it, and I agree to be bound by its terms.

I understand that Confidential Materials, as defined in the Stipulation and Protective Order, including any notes or other records that may be made regarding any such materials, shall not be disclosed to anyone except as expressly permitted by the Stipulation and Protective Order. Unless otherwise provided in the Stipulation and Protective Order, I will not use Confidential Materials obtained pursuant to this Protective Order for any purpose other than the prosecution, defense and/or settlement of this proceeding.

I further understand that I am to retain all copies of all Confidential Materials provided to me in this proceeding in a secure manner, and that all copies of such Materials are to remain in my personal custody until termination of my participation in this proceeding, whereupon the copies of such Materials will be returned to counsel who provided me with such Materials or otherwise disposed of pursuant to the terms of the Stipulation and Protective Order.

I declare under penalty of perjury, under the laws of the State of _____, that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed this _____ day of _____, 2019, at _____.
