Case No.: 2:20-cv-00190-APG-DJA

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

18 Plaintiff, Asher Richard Cohen, and Defendants, and Bayview Loan Servicing, LLC, by 19 and through their counsel of record, hereby stipulate and agree as follows¹:

20 1. Any party or non-party may designate as “confidential” (by stamping the relevant 21 page or as otherwise set forth herein) any document or response to discovery which that party or 22 non-party considers in good faith to contain information involving trade secrets, or confidential
 23 business or financial information, subject to protection under the Federal Rules of Civil 24 Procedure or Nevada law (“Confidential Information”). Where a document or response consists 25 of more than one page, the first page and each page on which Confidential Information appears 26 shall be so designated.
 27

28 ¹ Defendant Transunion has not been included as a party to this confidentiality agreement because it recently settled this matter with plaintiff pending final dismissal paperwork. ECF No. 33.

1 2. A party or non-party may designate information disclosed during a deposition or 2 in response to written discovery as “confidential:” by so indicating in said response or on the 3 record at the deposition and requesting the preparation of a separate transcript of such material.
4 Additionally, a party or non-party may designate in writing, within twenty (20) days after receipt 5 of said responses or of the deposition transcript for which the designation is proposed, that 6 specific pages of the transcript and/or specific responses be treated as “confidential” information.
7 Any other party may object to such proposal, in writing or on the record. Upon such objection,
8 the parties shall follow the procedures described in paragraph 8 below. After any designation 9 made according to the procedure set forth in this paragraph, the designated documents or 10 information shall be treated according to the designation until the matter is resolved according to 11 the procedures described in paragraph 8 below, and counsel for all parties shall be responsible 12 for making all previously unmarked copies of the designated material in their possession or 13 control with the specified designation.

14 3. All information produced or exchanged in the course of this case (other than 15 information that is publicly available) shall be used by the party or parties to whom the 16 information is produced solely for the purpose of this case.

17 4. Except with the prior written consent of the other parties, or upon prior order of 18 this Court obtained with notice to opposing counsel, Confidential Information shall not be 19 disclosed to any person other than:

- 20 (a) counsel for the respective parties in this litigation, including in-house
21 counsel and co-counsel retained for this litigation;
22 (b) employees of such counsel;
23 (c) individual defendants, class representatives, any officer or employee of a 24 party, to the extent deemed necessary by Counsel for the prosecution of 25 this litigation;
26 (d) consultants or expert witnesses retained for the prosecution or defense of 27 this litigation, provided that each such person shall execute a copy of the 28 Certification attached to this Order as Exhibit A (which shall be retained

1 by counsel to the party so disclosing the Confidential Information and 2 made available for inspection by opposing counsel during the pendency or 3 after the termination of the action only upon good cause shown and upon
4 order of the Court) before being shown or given any Confidential
5 Information and provided that if the party chooses a consultant or expert 6 employed by a corporate defendant or one of its competitors, the party
7 shall notify the opposing party, or designating non-party, before disclosing
8 any Confidential Information to that individual and shall give the opposing 9 party an opportunity to move for a protective order preventing or limiting 10 such disclosure;

- 11 (e) any authors or recipients of the Confidential Information;
- 12 (f) the Court, personnel, and court reports; and
- 13 (g) witnesses (other than persons described in paragraph 4(e).) A witness 14 shall sign the Certification before being shown a confidential document.
15 Confidential Information may be disclosed to a witness who will not sign
16 the Certification only in a deposition at which the party who designated 17 the Confidential Information is represented or has been given notice that 18 Confidential Information shall be designated "Confidential" pursuant to 19 paragraph 2 above. Witnesses shown Confidential Information shall not 20 be allowed to retain copies.

21 5. Any persons receiving Confidential Information shall not reveal or discuss such 22 information to or with any person who is not entitled to receive such information, except as set 23 forth herein.

24 6. Unless otherwise permitted by statute, rule, or prior Court Order, papers filed with 25 the Court under seal shall be accompanied by a contemporaneous motion for leave to file those 26 documents under seal, and shall be filed consistent with the Court's electronic filing procedures
27 in accordance with Local Rule UA 10-5(a). Notwithstanding any agreement among the parties, 28 the party seeking to file a paper under seal bears the burden of overcoming the presumption in

1 favor of public access to papers filed in court. Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447
2 F.2d 1172 (9th Cir. 2006).

3 7. A party may designate as “confidential” documents or discovery materials
4 produced by a non-party by providing written notice to all parties of the relevant document 5 numbers or other identification within thirty (30) days after receiving such documents or 6 discovery materials. Any party or non-party may voluntarily disclose to others without 7 restriction any information designated by that party or non-party as confidential, although a 8 document may lose its confidential status if it is made public.

9 8. If a party contends that any material is not entitled to confidential treatment, such 10 party may at any time give written notice to the party or non-party who designated the material.
11 The party or non-party who designated the material shall have twenty-five (days) from the 12 receipt of such written notice to apply to the Court for an order designating the material as 13 confidential. The party or non-party seeking the order has the burden of establishing that the 14 document is entitled to protection.

15 9. Notwithstanding any challenge to the designation of material as Confidential
16 Information, all documents shall be treated as such and shall be subject to the provisions hereof
17 unless and until one of the following occurs:

- 18 (a) the party or non-party claims that the material is Confidential Information 19 withdraws such designation in writing; or 20 (b) the party or non-party who claims that the material is Confidential
21 Information fails to apply to the Court for an Order designating the 22 material confidential within the time period specified above after receipt 23 of a written challenge to such designation; or 24 (c) the Court rules the material is not confidential.

25 10. All provisions of this Order restricting the communication or use of Confidential
26 Information shall continue to be binding after the conclusion of this action, unless otherwise
27 agreed or ordered. Upon conclusion of the litigation, a party in the possession of Confidential
28 Information, other than that which is contained in pleadings, correspondence, and deposition

1 transcripts, shall either (a) return such documents no later than thirty (30) days after conclusion
2 of the action to counsel for the party or non-party, or (b) destroy such documents within the time
3 period upon such consent of the party who provided the information and certify in writing within 4 thirty (30) days that the documents have been destroyed.

5 11. The terms of this Stipulation and Order do not preclude, limit, restrict or 6 otherwise apply to the use of documents at trial.

7 12. Nothing herein shall be deemed to waive any applicable privilege or work product
8 protection, or to affect the ability of a party to seek relief for an inadvertent disclosure of material
9 protected by privilege or work product protection.
