DISCOVERY REMAINING

1. The parties will continue participating in written discovery.
2. The parties will collect the plaintiffs' medical records.
3. Defendants will depose Plaintiff, Michael Lewis and witnesses Carre Lewis, Ashley Ember Allen and Margaret Tracey.
4. Plaintiffs will depose the Defendants and the Defendants' FRCP 30(b)(6) witness(es).
5. The parties may depose any and all other witnesses identified through discovery, potentially including treatment providers and personnel whom interacted with Mr. Lewis while in the custody of various Defendants.
6. The parties may conduct depositions of expert witnesses.

WHY REMAINING DISCOVERY HAS NOT BEEN COMPLETED

The parties aver, pursuant to LR 26-3, that good cause exists for the following requested extension. This Request for an extension of time is not sought for any improper purpose or other purpose of delay. Rather, it is sought by the parties solely for the purpose of allowing sufficient time to conduct discovery to develop their respective cases in chief.

The parties have been diligently moving the case forward. They have been participating in substantive discovery, including exchanging their initial lists of witnesses and documents and supplements thereto, and propounding written discovery.

Counsel for City of Henderson et al. is preparing ~~for~~ trial in John Roberts v. United Services Automobile Association, A-19-790757-C. The trial is set on June 5, 2023 and is expected to last 10 days.

Counsel are collaborating in the setting of the remaining case depositions and aim to have them complete by August 2023.

Counsel Armeni for plaintiffs is out of the jurisdiction for two weeks in the month of June for both State Bar of Nevada business, as well as for family travels. Counsel Armeni currently has a trial set in the matter of the United States v. Dean Romero, Case No, 2:22-cr-00049 in the United States District Court commencing on July 25, 2023. That trial will last 3-5 days.

1 To ensure sufficient time is allotted for party and expert depositions, the parties
2 maintain that the current discovery deadlines must be extended.

3 Extension or Modification of The Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order. LR 26-3 governs
4 modifications or extension of the Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order. Any stipulation or motion
5 to extend or modify that Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order must be made no later than twenty-
6 one (21) days before the expiration of the subject deadline (unless a showing of good cause is 7 present) and must comply fully with LR 26-3.

8 This is the sixth request for extension of time in this matter. The parties respectfully submit
9 that the reasons set forth above constitute compelling reasons for the short extension. The following
10 is a list of the current discovery deadlines and the parties' proposed extended deadlines.
