CASE NO: 2:24-cv-00320-RFB-BNW

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER
 REGARDING CONFIDENTIAL
 MATERIALS

 19 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by the undersigned attorneys for the 20 respective parties, that with regard to material disclosed in the course of the above-captioned lawsuit
 21 (“Lawsuit”) which constitute or contain confidential, proprietary, trade secrets or other confidential
 22 research, development, or commercial information of the parties (“Confidential Material”), the 23 following procedures shall govern:

24 1. This Order is meant to encompass all forms of disclosure which may contain Confidential
 25 Material, including any document, pleading, motion, exhibit, declaration, affidavit, deposition 26 transcript, inspection and all other tangible items (electronic media, photographs, videocassettes, etc.).

27 ///

1           2. The parties may designate any Confidential Material produced or filed in this Lawsuit as 2 confidential and subject to the terms of this Order by marking such materials “Confidential”. If any 3 material has multiple pages, this designation need only be placed on the first page of such material.
4 Any material designated as “Confidential” shall not be disclosed to any person or entity, except to the 5 parties, counsel in this Lawsuit, and the Court.

6           3. Any material designated as confidential pursuant to paragraph 2 above shall be used solely 7 for the purposes of this Lawsuit and for no other purpose.

8           4. Prior to disclosure of any Confidential Material, each person to whom disclosure is to be 9 made shall execute a written “Confidentiality Agreement” (in the form attached hereto) consenting to 10 be bound by the terms of this Order. The parties, counsel for the respective parties (including legal 11 assistants and other personnel/employees), the Court, a jury empaneled for this matter, court personnel
12 (including court reporters, stenographers, and/or videographers), stenographic and/or video reporters
13 engaged for depositions or other proceedings, Special Masters, Arbitrators, Mediators, Settlement
14 Conference Judges, and the author, addressees, and recipients of the confidential document are deemed 15 to be bound by this Order and are not required to execute a separate Confidentiality Agreement.

16           5. Only counsel of record in this Lawsuit shall be permitted to disseminate Confidential 17 Material. Upon dissemination of any Confidential Material, each non-designating counsel of record in 18 this Lawsuit shall maintain a written record as to: (1) the identity of any person given Confidential
19 Material, and (2) the identity of the Confidential Material so disseminated (such as by “Bates stamp” 20 number). Such record shall be made available to the designating party upon request.

21           6. If additional persons become parties to this Lawsuit, they shall not have access to any 22 Confidential Material until they execute and file with the Court their written agreement to be bound 23 by the terms of this Order.

24           7. In the event that any question is asked at a deposition that calls for the disclosure of 25 Confidential Material, the witness shall answer such question (unless otherwise instructed not to do 26 so on grounds of privilege) provided that the only persons in attendance at the deposition are persons 27 who are qualified to receive such information pursuant this Order. Deposition testimony may be 28 designated as confidential following the testimony having been given provided that: (1) such testimony

1 is identified and designated on the record at the deposition, or (2) non-designating counsel is notified
2 of the designation in writing within thirty days after receipt by the designating party of the respective 3 deposition transcript. All deposition transcripts in their entirety shall be treated in the interim as 4 “Confidential” pursuant to paragraph 2 above. When Confidential Material is incorporated in a 5 deposition transcript, the party designating such information confidential shall make arrangements
6 with the court reporter not to disclose any information except in accordance with the terms of this 7 Order.

8 8. If a deponent refuses to execute a Confidentiality Agreement, disclosure of Confidential 9 Material during the deposition shall not constitute a waiver of confidentiality. Under such 10 circumstances, the witness shall sign the original deposition transcript in the presence of the court
11 reporter and no copy of the transcript or exhibits shall be given to the deponent.

12 9. With respect to any communications to the Court, including any pleadings, motions or other 13 papers, all documents containing Confidential Material shall be communicated to the Court shall be 14 done in accordance with Local Rules IA 10-4 and IA 10-5, in additions to the directives set forth in 15 Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172 (9th Cir. 2006) and Center for Auto Safety
16 v. Chrysler Group, LLC, 809 F.3d 1092, 1097 (9th Cir. 2016). All communications shall indicate 17 clearly which portions are designated to be “Confidential”.

18 10. The Clerk of this Court is directed to maintain all communications received by the Court
19 pursuant to paragraph 9 above under seal. All such communications shall be maintained in the Court’s 20 file in a sealed envelope or other appropriate sealed container on which shall be written the caption of 21 this Lawsuit, an indication of the nature of the contents of the sealed envelope or container, and the 22 following statement: “Enclosed are confidential materials filed in this case pursuant to a Protective 23 Order entered by the Court and the contents shall not be examined except pursuant to further order of 24 the Court”.

25 11. If a non-designating party is subpoenaed or ordered to produce Confidential Material by 26 another court or administrative agency, such party shall promptly notify the designating party of the 27 pending subpoena or order and shall not produce any Confidential Material until the designating party 28

1 has had reasonable time to object or otherwise take appropriate steps to protect such Confidential
2 Material.

3 12. If a party believes that any Confidential Material does not contain confidential information,
4 it may contest the applicability of this Order to such information by notifying the designating party's 5 counsel in writing and identifying the information contested. The parties shall have thirty days after 6 such notice to meet and confer and attempt to resolve the issue. If the dispute is not resolved within 7 such period, the party seeking the protection shall have thirty days in which to make a motion for a
8 protective order with respect to contested information. Information that is subject to a dispute as to 9 whether it is properly designated shall be treated as designated in accordance with the provisions of 10 this Order until the Court issues a ruling.

11 13. Inadvertent failure to designate any material "Confidential" or shall not constitute a waiver 12 of an otherwise valid claim of confidentiality pursuant to this Order, so long as a claim of 13 confidentiality is asserted within fifteen days after discovery of the inadvertent failure. At such time, 14 arrangements shall be made by the parties to designate the material "Confidential" in accordance with 15 this Order.

16 14. This Order shall be without prejudice to the right of any party to oppose production of any 17 information or object to its admissibility into evidence.

18 15. When any counsel of record in this Lawsuit or any attorney who has executed a 19 Confidentiality Agreement becomes aware of any violation of this Order, or of facts constituting good
20 cause to believe that a violation of this Order may have occurred, such attorney shall report that there
21 may have been a violation of this Order to the Court and all counsel of record.

22 16. Within thirty days after the termination of this Lawsuit (whether by dismissal or final 23 judgment) and at the request of the designating party, all Confidential Material shall be returned to 24 counsel for the designating party or destroyed with a certification of such destruction provided to the 25 designating party. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel for each party shall be entitled to retain 26 archival copies for the required seven year period only of all pleadings, motions paper, trial documents
27 and exhibits, deposition transcripts, videos and exhibits, hearing transcripts, legal memoranda,
28 correspondence and work product, expert reports, and consultant or expert work product, provided

1 that all the Confidential material is handled in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and will 2 not be disseminated in any way. After such seven year period, any and all Confidential Material shall 3 be returned to counsel for the designating party or destroyed with a certification of such destruction
4 provided to the designating party.

5 17. After the termination of this Lawsuit, the provisions of this Order shall continue to be 6 binding and this Court shall retain jurisdiction over the parties and any other person who has access to 7 documents and information produced pursuant to this Order for the sole purpose of enforcement of its 8 provisions.
