 25 and Holly S. Parker, Deputy City Attorney; and Defendant PAUL D. SIFRE, by and through his 26 undersigned counsel, Ronald J. Dreher, Esq. (collectively “the Parties”), hereby agree and stipulate 27 to the entry of a Protective Order as follows:
 28

Jack D Campbell
 Attorney at Law
 418 River Flow Ct.
 Reno, NV 89523

1 I. Reason for the Order: The Parties have requested or may request production of 2 documentation that the Parties contend includes confidential information or highly personal private 3 information, including but not limited to Internal Affairs files, photographs, employment records, 4 personnel records, medical records, compelled statements, and possibly other documentation that 5 the Parties would object to production of as confidential and private documentation, or for which 6 they may seek a protective order, if the documentation described herein were not protected by this 7 Stipulated Protective Order. The purpose of this Stipulated Protective Order is to facilitate the 8 Parties in the discovery process. However, the mere existence of this Protective Order does not 9 waive Defendants' right to object to production and redact certain documentation or information.
10 If any such objection is made and the parties are unable to agree, the production or protection of 11 the documentation or information shall be submitted to the Court for review and decision 12 concerning production or protection.

13 II. Confidential Documentation and Information:

14 A. The Parties may subject any documentation they have previously produced 15 or produce hereafter, or that any non-party produces in response to a subpoena or otherwise, to the 16 protections of this Stipulated Protective Order by:

17 1. Marking any document or response to discovery which that party 18 considers in good faith to contain information subject to protection under the Federal Rules of 19 Civil Procedure or Nevada law as "confidential" by stamping the relevant page or as otherwise set 20 forth herein. Where a document or response consists of more than one page, the first page and 21 each page on which confidential information appears shall be so designated.

22 2. A party may designate information disclosed during a deposition or 23 in response to written discovery as "confidential" by so indicating in said response or on the record 24 at the deposition and requesting the preparation of a separate transcript of such material.

25 3. A party may also designate in writing, within twenty (20) days after 26 receipt of discovery responses or of a deposition transcript that specific pages of the transcript 27 and/or specific responses be treated as "confidential" documentation or information. Any other 28 party may object to such proposal, in writing or on the record. Upon such objection, the Parties shall follow the procedures described in paragraph VIII below. After any documentation or

1 information has been designated as confidential, the designated documentation or information
2 shall be treated according to the designation until the matter is resolved according to the procedures
3 described in paragraph VIII below, and counsel for all parties shall be responsible for marking all 4 previously unmarked copies of the designated material in their possession or control with the 5 specific confidential designation. The documents subject to the claim of confidentiality shall be 6 identified either by clearly describing the document or by referring to the document by its Bates-7 stamp numbers, (e.g., COR-0000).

8 4. A party may designate as “confidential” documents or discovery
9 materials produced by a non-party by providing written notice to all Parties of the relevant 10 document numbers or other identification within thirty (30) days after receiving such documents 11 or other discovery materials. Any party may voluntarily disclose to others without restriction any 12 information designated by that party as confidential, although a document may lose its confidential 13 status if it is made public by the party designating the information as confidential.

14 B. Documents designated as set forth above shall hereafter be referred to as the 15 “confidential documentation.” The term “confidential documentation” shall include any 16 information (“confidential information”) obtained from the confidential documentation, and this 17 Stipulated Protective Order prohibits the use or disclosure of such confidential information to the 18 same extent as the confidential documentation.

19 III. General Prohibition:

20 Confidential documentation and information shall be used solely for the preparation, 21 prosecution and defense of the present case. Except as specified in Paragraph IV below, access to 22 confidential documentation and information shall be limited to the Court, its officers, court 23 reporters, counsel for the parties and counsel’s staff, the parties’ litigation representatives and 24 principals, their staff members assisting in the preparation, prosecution and defense of this case, 25 any authors or recipients of the confidential documentation, and witnesses. Except as specified 26 below, no person with access to confidential documentation or information shall reveal or discuss 27 such confidential documentation or information to or with any person who is not entitled to receive 28 such information, except as set forth herein.

1 IV. Third Party Access: Counsel for any party may give access to the confidential
2 documentation or information to independent experts and their staff, consulting firms, or other 3 independent contractors actually retained or employed to advise or assist such counsel and to 4 whom it is necessary that the confidential documentation and information be disclosed for 5 purposes of this case, provided that:

6 A. Before access to the confidential documentation and information are given 7 to any person pursuant Section IV, that person shall be informed by counsel proposing to give 8 access of, and shall agree to be bound by, the following provisions:

9 1. He or she shall not disclose the confidential documentation or 10 information to any person to whom this Stipulated Protective Order does not provide access.

11 2. He or she shall make no copies, compilations, or summaries of the 12 confidential documentation and information, except in connection with the preparation, 13 prosecution and defense of this case and if such copies, compilations or summaries are made,
14 neither those documents, nor the information contained therein shall be disclosed to any person 15 other than those permitted by this Stipulated Protective Order.

16 3. He or she shall return all copies, compilations, or summaries of the 17 confidential documentation and information contained therein to the attorney for the party who 18 provided the confidential documentation or information, or erase and destroy all copies (including 19 electronic copies), compilations, or summaries containing confidential documentation or 20 information.

21 B. Before a party or the party's counsel gives access to confidential 22 documentation and information to any person under Paragraph VI, or the person shall execute and 23 provide to counsel proposing to give such access, a declaration (in the form of Exhibit A) that he 24 or she has read this Stipulated Protective Order, and that he or she agrees to be bound by its 25 provisions. The declaration shall be retained by counsel for the party so disclosing the confidential 26 documentation and made available upon request for inspection by counsel for any of the other 27 parties during the pendency of the action. This Paragraph and the requirement to execute a 28 declaration in the form of Exhibit A does not apply to any persons with access to confidential documentation or information described in Paragraph III.

1 V. Amendment: This Stipulated Protective Order shall prohibit disclosure to all
2 persons other than those set forth herein. The parties may amend this Stipulated Protective Order
3 upon consent or upon application to the Court in which this action is pending. Subsequent parties 4 to this litigation may be given documents subject to this Stipulated Protective Order, provided they 5 first file with the court a Stipulation to be bound by the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order.

6 VI. Use of Confidential Documentation: Nothing in this Stipulated Protective Order 7 shall prohibit counsel for the parties from using any of the confidential documentation and 8 information in connection with any deposition, application, motion, hearing, or trial in this action, 9 provided that in the event that any such documentation or information is used in connection with 10 a deposition, or filed or otherwise lodged with the Court, it shall be filed or lodged under seal
11 pending further order and shall be labeled, “CONFIDENTIAL - NOT TO BE DISCLOSED 12 EXCEPT SUBJECT TO STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER.” In the event any 13 confidential documentation or information is used in connection with a deposition, the deposition 14 shall be conducted outside the presence of any person not directly involved in litigation other than 15 the court reporter and persons agreed to between the parties. All portions of the deposition 16 transcript and exhibits relating to the confidential information and documents referenced herein
17 shall be designated, “CONFIDENTIAL.”

18 VII. Unless otherwise permitted by statute, rule or prior court order, papers filed with 19 the Court under seal shall be accompanied by a contemporaneous motion for leave to file those 20 documents under seal and shall be filed consistent with the Court’s electronic filing procedures in 21 accordance with LR IA 10-5. Notwithstanding any agreement among the Parties, the party seeking 22 to file a paper under seal bears the burden of overcoming the presumption in favor of public access 23 to papers filed in court. Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.2d 1172 (9th Cir. 2006); 24 Pintos v. Pac. Creditors Ass’n, 605 F.3d 665, 677-78 (9th Cir. 2010).

25 VIII. The Parties agree and stipulate that the designation of any document or documents
26 as “confidential” pursuant to this Stipulated Protective Order may be challenged by any other Party 27 to this lawsuit. A party disputing documentation designated as “confidential” will give written 28 notice of the same within fourteen days of the receipt of the designation. The parties further agree that within ten days of notice of objection to designation as “confidential” the objecting party will

1 file an appropriate motion with the Magistrate Judge for the Court's determination of appropriate 2 designations. The failure to do so will constitute a waiver of the objections.

3 IX. Notwithstanding any challenge to the designation of material as confidential 4 documentation or information, all documents shall be treated as such and shall be subject to the 5 provisions hereof unless and until one the following occurs:

6 a. The party who claims that the material is confidential documentation or 7 information withdraws such designation in writing; or 8 b. The Court rules the material is not confidential.

9 X. All provisions of this Stipulated Protective Order restricting the communication or 10 use of confidential documentation and information shall continue to be binding after the 11 conclusion of this action, unless otherwise agreed or ordered. Within thirty (30) days after any 12 judgment is entered in this matter, resolution is reached, or the appeal process is concluded, 13 whichever is later, all confidential documentation or information received by a party including all 14 notes, transcripts, tapes, other papers, and any other medium containing, summarizing, 15 excerpting, or otherwise embodying any confidential documentation or information as defined 16 herein, or its contents so furnished, subject to future revision by the Court or parties hereto, shall 17 be returned to the attorney for the designating party or erased and- destroyed. This requirement 18 does not include work-product of legal counsel, or information contained in pleadings, deposition 19 transcripts, or correspondence, which shall be maintained in confidence.

20 XI. Should any party who is not a party to this Stipulated Protective Order seek access 21 to the confidential documentation or information referenced herein, by request, subpoena, or 22 otherwise, from any party to the Stipulated Protective Order, the party to this Stipulated Protective 23 Order from whom the information is requested shall: (a) promptly notify the party that designated 24 the confidential documentation or information of the request or subpoena; and shall (b) inform the 25 requesting party of the existence of this Stipulated Protective Order.

26 XII. Nothing herein shall be deemed to waive any applicable privilege or work-product 27 protection, or to affect the ability of a party to seek relief for an inadvertent disclosure of material 28 protected by privilege or work-product protection.

1 XIV. The terms of this Stipulated Protective Order do not preclude, limit, restrict, or 2 otherwise apply to the use of documents at trial.

3 This Stipulation shall be effective upon signing and shall be made an order of this Court.
