SPATT, District Judge.

On April 15, 2011, the plaintiffs Debra and Greg Geller filed the present objections to United States Magistrate Judge E. Thomas Boyle's Order dated April 8, 2011. The plaintiffs assert that, at a conference held before Judge Boyle on April 8, 2011, Judge Boyle denied the plaintiffs' motions (1) to compel the production of certain documents by the defendants, and (2) to extend the discovery deadline. The Court has reviewed Judge Boyle's written Order of April 8, 2011, and finds that it does not appear to address either of these issues. In light of the plaintiffs' objections, the Court therefore respectfully requests that Judge Boyle issue a further order indicating whether these motions were in fact addressed at the April 8, 2011 conference, and if so, the outcome of and basis for the Court's resolution of the motions. Accordingly, the plaintiffs' objections to Judge Boyle's April 8, 2011 Order are denied without prejudice to renew.

SO ORDERED.
