v.	:
EDWARD M. FRIMEL, SA, et al.,	:	MEMORANDUM OPINION
Defendants.	:

FREDA L. WOLFSON, U.S.D.J.

Plaintiff, Carl Dwayne Crawford (“Crawford” or “Plaintiff”), a federal prisoner, filed pro se with the Court a complaint alleging claims under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. The filing fee for a civil complaint is $400.00. If a prisoner plaintiff is proceeding in forma pauperis, the fee is $350.00, subject to being paid in installments as described below.

A prisoner who seeks to proceed in forma pauperis must submit an affidavit, including a statement of all assets, stating that the prisoner is unable to pay the applicable filing fee. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a)(1). The prisoner must also submit a certified copy of his inmate trust fund account statement for the six-month period immediately preceding the filing of his complaint. See id. § 1915(a)(2). The prisoner must obtain this statement from the appropriate official of each prison at which he was or is confined. See id.

Even if a prisoner is granted in forma pauperis status, he must pay the full amount of the filing fee of $350.00. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(1). In each month that the amount in the prisoner’s account exceeds $10.00, the agency having custody of the prisoner shall assess, deduct from the prisoner’s account, and forward to the Clerk of the Court, payment equal to 20% of the preceding month's income credited to the prisoner's account. See id. § 1915(b)(2). The deductions will continue until the $350.00 filing fee is paid.

Even if the necessary fees are paid and the complaint is accepted for filing, the Court may nevertheless immediately dismiss the case. The Court must review the complaint and dismiss it if it finds that the action (1) is frivolous or malicious, (2) fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, or (3) seeks monetary relief against a defendant who is immune from such relief. See id. § 1915(e)(2)(B); see also id. § 1915A(b).

If the plaintiff has, on three or more prior occasions while incarcerated, brought an action or appeal in a court that was dismissed on any of the grounds listed above, he cannot bring another action in forma pauperis unless he is in imminent danger of serious physical injury. See id. § 1915(g).

In this case, Crawford has submitted a copy of an inmate trust account statement, but that statement is not certified by a prison official and it reflects transactions from only a three-month period, not the six months required by 28 U.S.C. § 1915. Accordingly, his application to proceed in forma pauperis will be denied without prejudice. The Clerk will be ordered to administratively close this case. Plaintiff may reopen this action, however, by either paying the filing fee or submitting a complete in forma pauperis application.
