IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF SOUTH CAROLINA

James Preston Powell, Jr.,	Civil Action No.: 4:12-2085-MGL
Plaintiff,
v. )	OPINION AND ORDER
Carolyn W. Colvin, <sup>1</sup> Acting Commissioner of Social Security, Defendant. )

This matter is before the court for review of the Report and Recommendation of United States Magistrate Judge Thomas E. Rogers, III, made in accordance with 28 U.S.C. 636(b)(1)(B) and Local Civil Rule 73.02 for the District of South Carolina. PlaintiffJames Preston Powell, Jr., ("Plaintiff") brought this action seeking judicial review of the final decision of the Commissioner of Social Security ("Commissioner") denying Plaintiff's claim for Disability Insurance Benefits ("DIB").

On December 17, 2013, the Magistrate Judge issued a Report and Recommendation in which he concluded that while the Commissioner's decision may have been supported by substantial evidence, it is not clear on the record presented. (ECF No. 26.) Accordingly, the Magistrate Judge recommended that the case be reversed and remanded to the Commissioner pursuant to sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) for further administrative proceedings. (ECF No. 26 at 12.) Plaintiff filed no objections to the Report and Recommendation. On January 3, 2014, the Commissioner filed "Defendant's Notice of Not Filing Objections to the Report and Recommendation of Magistrate Judge." (ECF

No. 29.)

The Magistrate Judge makes only a recommendation to this court. The recommendation has no presumptive weight, and the responsibility to make a final determination remains with the court. Mathews v. Weber, 423 U.S. 261 (1976). The court is charged with making a de novo determination of those portions of the Report to which specific objection is made, and the court may accept, reject, or modify, in whole or in part, the recommendation of the Magistrate Judge, or recommit the matter to him with instructions. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). In the absence of a timely filed objection, a district court need not conduct a de novo review, but instead must "only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation." Diamond

v. Colonial Life & Acc. Ins. Co., 416 F.3d 310, 315 (4th Cir.2005).

The court has carefully reviewed the record and concurs in the recommendation of the Magistrate Judge. The court adopts the Report and Recommendation and incorporates it herein by reference. The decision of the Commissioner to deny benefits is reversed and the action is remanded under sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) for further administrative action consistent with this order and the Report and Recommendation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
