OPINION AND ORDER OF TRANSFER

A civil action wherein jurisdiction is not founded solely on diversity of citizenship may be brought in (1) a judicial district where any defendant resides, if all defendants reside in the same state, or (2) a judicial district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred. 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b). In addition, for the convenience of parties and witnesses, and in the interest of justice, a district court may transfer any civil action to any other district or division where it might have been brought. 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a).

In this case, the majority of the events about which Plaintiff complains occurred in Karnes County, Texas. (D.E. 1). None of the Defendants resides or is found in the Corpus Christi Division of the Southern District of Texas. Karnes County lies within the San Antonio Division of the Western District of Texas. 28 U.S.C. § 124(d)(4). Therefore, the interests of justice would be served by a transfer to the San Antonio Division of the Western District of Texas. Accordingly, it is ORDERED that this case be transferred to the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas, San Antonio Division.

ORDERED this 18th day of February, 2015.
