STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

TYCHE HIGH SEAS CAPITAL CORP., a
Florida Corporation, in personam,

Counter-Claimant,

v.

PACIFIC SURVEY GROUP, LLC,
a Washington Limited Liability Company,

Counter-Defendant.

Counsel for Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant and Defendant/ Counter-Claimant Agree and Stipulate to the Protective Order as follows:

1. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

Discovery is currently proceeding in the instant case which will likely require production

1 of documents that may contain and are likely to involve production of confidential, proprietary, 2 trade secret and/or private information for which special protection may be warranted.
3 Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition this court in Washington to enter the 4 following Stipulated Protective Order (the “Protective Order”), which is consistent with Western 5 District of Washington LCR 26(c). It does not confer blanket protection on all disclosures or 6 responses to discovery; the protection it affords from disclosure and use extends only to the limited 7 information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the applicable legal principles 8 and orders of each of the courts, and it does not presumptively entitle parties to file confidential
9 information under seal, except to the extent that the court has already ruled otherwise. It likewise 10 does not constitute agreement that any documents and/or information will be produced or disclosed 11 by any party, and it does not signify that any documents and/or information is/are required to be 12 produced, are admissible, and/or are relevant to the issues before either of the captioned courts or 13 in any other action or proceeding.

14 This Protective Order shall apply to all confidential, proprietary, trade secret and/or private 15 information so designated by any party to, or any person or entity with an interest in, either of the 16 above-captioned lawsuits, regardless of whether any such information may have been previously 17 disclosed, published or disseminated.

18 Defendant/ Counter-Claimant Tyche is currently a party to a separate lawsuit pending in 19 the United States District Court for the District of Alaska captioned THE CARGO OF THE SS
20 ISLANDER in rem, TYCHE HIGH SEAS CAPITAL CORP., Contract Salvor, Case No. 3:96-cv-21 0270-HRH (“AK Action”). Plaintiff/ Counter-Defendant Pacific filed a motion to intervene in the 22 AK Action. The Court in the AK Action ordered Tyche and intervenor Pacific to prepare a Non-23 Disclosure Agreement before Pacific may access Tyche’s sealed June 2022 status report. (Dkt.
24 349). In the AK Action, Tyche and Pacific will submit a Non-Disclosure Agreement to the Alaska
25 District Court that complies with District of Alaska Local Civil Rule 26.1 to protect the proprietary 26 and confidential data. The Parties agree that all sealed documents in the AK Action shall also be 27 deemed subject to this Protective Order in this Washington case and accessible only to the extent

1 permitted by the Alaska District Court.

15 3. SCOPE

16 The protections conferred by this agreement cover not only confidential material (as 17 defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from confidential material; (2) all 18 copies, excerpts, summaries, and/or compilations of confidential material; and (3) any testimony, 19 conversations, or presentations by parties or their counsel that might reveal confidential material.

20 However, the protections conferred by this agreement do not cover information that is in 21 the public domain¹ or becomes part of the public domain through trial or otherwise. In the event a 22 Party believes that the information designated by the other party is available in the public domain, 23 it shall identify the exact basis that the information is in the public domain to the other Party, but 24 shall refrain from making use of the information without attempting to resolve the issue through

26 ¹ Black's Law Dictionary (11th ed. 2019) defines Public Domain as: "The universe of inventions and creative works 27 that are no protected by intellectual-property rights and are therefore available for anyone to use without charge.
When a copyright trademark, patent, or trade-secret rights are lost or expires, the intellectual property they had protected becomes part of the public domain and can be appropriated without liability for infringement."

1 the procedures identified in Section 6. In the event it is necessary for the Parties to seek a resolution 2 by the Court, the Parties shall follow the procedure in Section 4.3 of this Agreement which 3 incorporates the procedures of W.D.WA Local Rule 5(g). The prevailing Party may seek 4 attorneys' fees from the Court.

5 4. ACCESS TO AND USE OF CONFIDENTIAL MATERIAL

6 4.1 Basic Principles. A receiving party may use confidential material that is disclosed 7 or produced by another party or by a non-party in connection with this case only for prosecuting, 8 defending, or attempting to settle this litigation. Confidential material may be disclosed only to the 9 categories of persons and under the conditions described in this agreement. Confidential material 10 must be stored and maintained by a receiving party at a location and in a secure manner that ensures 11 that access is limited to the persons authorized under this agreement.

12 4.2 Disclosure of "CONFIDENTIAL" Information or Items. Unless otherwise 13 ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the designating party, a receiving party may disclose 14 any confidential material only to:

15 (a) the receiving party's counsel of record in this action, as well as employees 16 of counsel to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the information for this litigation;

17 (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including in house counsel) of the 18 receiving party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this litigation, unless the parties 19 agree that a particular document or material produced is for Attorney's Eyes Only and is so 20 designated;

21 (c) experts and consultants to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this 22 litigation and who have signed the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound" (Exhibit A);

23 (d) the court, court personnel, and court reporters and their staff;

24 (e) copy or imaging services retained by counsel to assist in the duplication of 25 confidential material, provided that counsel for the party retaining the copy or imaging service 26 instructs the service not to disclose any confidential material to third parties and to immediately 27 return all originals and copies of any confidential material;

1 (f) during their depositions, witnesses in the action to whom disclosure is 2 reasonably necessary and who have signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” 3 (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed by the designating party or ordered by the court. Pages of 4 transcribed deposition testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal confidential material must 5 be separately bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted 6 under this agreement;

7 (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 8 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information.

9 4.3 Filing Confidential Material. Before filing confidential material or discussing or 10 referencing such material in court filings, the filing party shall confer with the designating party, 11 in accordance with the applicable court rules, to determine whether the designating party will 12 remove the confidential designation, whether the document can be redacted, or whether a motion 13 to seal or stipulation and proposed order is warranted. During the meet and confer process, the 14 designating party must identify the basis for sealing the specific confidential information at issue, 15 and the filing party shall include this basis in its motion to seal, along with any objection to sealing 16 the information at issue. WD WA Local Civil Rule 5(g) sets forth the procedures that must be 17 followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the court to 18 file material under seal. A party who seeks to maintain the confidentiality of its information must 19 satisfy the requirements of WD WA Local Civil Rule 5(g)(3)(B), even if it is not the party filing 20 the motion to seal. Failure to satisfy this requirement will result in the motion to seal being denied, 21 in accordance with the strong presumption of public access to the Court’s files.

22 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

23 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection. Each 24 party or non-party that designates information or items for protection under this agreement must 25 take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies under the appropriate 26 standards. The designating party must designate for protection only those parts of material, 27 documents, items, or oral or written communications that qualify, so that other portions of the

1 material, documents, items, or communications for which protection is not warranted are not swept 2 unjustifiably within the ambit of this agreement.

3 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations that are 4 shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose (e.g., to 5 unnecessarily encumber or delay the case development process or to impose unnecessary expenses 6 and burdens on other parties) expose the designating party to sanctions.

7 If it comes to a designating party's attention that information or items that it designated for 8 protection do not qualify for protection, the designating party must promptly notify all other parties 9 that it is withdrawing the mistaken designation.

10 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 11 agreement (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(b) below), or as otherwise stipulated or 12 ordered, disclosure or discovery material that qualifies for protection under this agreement must 13 be clearly so designated before or when the material is disclosed or produced.

14 (a) Information in documentary form: (e.g., paper or electronic documents 15 and deposition exhibits, but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial 16 proceedings), the designating party must affix the word "CONFIDENTIAL" to each page that 17 contains confidential material. If only a portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for 18 protection, the producing party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making 19 appropriate markings in the margins).

20 (b) Testimony given in deposition or in other pretrial proceedings: the 21 parties and any participating non-parties must identify on the record, during the deposition or other 22 pretrial proceeding, all protected testimony, without prejudice to their right to so designate other 23 testimony after reviewing the transcript. Any party or non-party may, within fifteen days after 24 receiving the transcript of the deposition or other pretrial proceeding, designate portions of the 25 transcript, or exhibits thereto, as confidential. If a party or non-party desires to protect confidential 26 information at trial, the issue should be addressed during the pre-trial conference.

27 (c) Other tangible items: the producing party must affix in a prominent place

1 on the exterior of the container or containers in which the information or item is stored the word
2 “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information or item warrant protection, 3 the producing party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected portion(s).

4 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent failure to 5 designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the designating party’s 6 right to secure protection under this agreement for such material. Upon timely correction of a 7 designation, the receiving party must make reasonable efforts to ensure that the material is treated 8 in accordance with the provisions of this agreement.

9 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

10 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any party or non-party may challenge a designation of 11 confidentiality at any time. Unless a prompt challenge to a designating party’s confidentiality 12 designation is necessary to avoid foreseeable, substantial unfairness, unnecessary economic 13 burdens, or a significant disruption or delay of the litigation, a party does not waive its right to 14 challenge a confidentiality designation by electing not to mount a challenge promptly after the 15 original designation is disclosed.

16 6.2 Meet and Confer. The parties must make every attempt to resolve any dispute 17 regarding confidential designations without court involvement. Any motion regarding confidential 18 designations or for a protective order must include a certification, in the motion or in a declaration 19 or affidavit, that the movant has engaged in a good faith meet and confer conference with other 20 affected parties in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action. The certification must list 21 the date, manner, and participants to the conference. A good faith effort to confer requires a face-22 to-face meeting or a telephone conference.

23 6.3 Judicial Intervention. If the parties cannot resolve a challenge without court
24 intervention, the designating party may file and serve a motion to retain confidentiality under WD
25 WA Local Civil Rule 7 (and in compliance with Local Civil Rule 5(g), if applicable). The burden 26 of persuasion in any such motion shall be on the designating party. Frivolous challenges, and those 27 made for an improper purpose (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on

1 other parties) may expose the challenging party to sanctions. All parties shall continue to maintain 2 the material in question as confidential until the court rules on the challenge.

4 7. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN OTHER LITIGATION

5 If a party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that compels 6 disclosure of any information or items designated in this action as “CONFIDENTIAL,” that party 7 must:

8 (a) promptly notify the designating party in writing and include a copy of the 9 subpoena or court order;

10 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to 11 issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or order is 12 subject to this agreement. Such notification shall include a copy of this agreement; and 13 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued by 14 the designating party whose confidential material may be affected.

15
16 8. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

17 If a receiving party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed confidential 18 material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this agreement, the receiving 19 party must immediately (a) notify in writing the designating party of the unauthorized disclosures, 20 (b) use its best efforts to retrieve all unauthorized copies of the protected material, (c) inform the 21 person or persons to whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this agreement, 22 and (d) request that such person or persons execute the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be 23 Bound” that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

24 9. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE PROTECTED MATERIAL

25 When a producing party gives notice to receiving parties that certain inadvertently 26 produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, the obligations of the 27

1 receiving parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision 2 is not intended to modify whatever procedure may be established in an e-discovery order or 3 agreement that provides for production without prior privilege review. The parties agree to the 4 entry of a non-waiver order under Fed. R. Evid. 502(d) as set forth herein.

5 10. NON TERMINATION AND RETURN OF DOCUMENTS

6 Within 60 days after the termination of this action, including all appeals, each receiving 7 party must return all confidential material to the producing party, including all copies, extracts and 8 summaries thereof. Alternatively, the parties may agree upon appropriate methods of destruction.

9 Notwithstanding this provision, counsel are entitled to retain one archival copy of all 10 documents filed with the court, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, correspondence, 11 deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, attorney work product, and consultant and expert work 12 product, even if such materials contain confidential material.

13 The confidentiality obligations imposed by this agreement shall remain in effect until a 14 designating party agrees otherwise in writing or a court orders otherwise.
