

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

OPINION AND ORDER

v.

ESTATE OF CHARLES E. FECTEAU,
ESTATE OF JUNE M. FECTEAU, BARRY
FECTEAU, UNKNOWN OWNERS AND
NON-RECORD CLAIMANTS, UNKNOWN
HEIRS AND DEVISEES OF CHARLES E.
FECTEAU, and UNKNOWN HEIRS AND DEVISEES OF JUNE M. FECTEAU,

14-cv-134-wmc

Defendants.

On February 19, 2014, plaintiff, the United States of America, filed this suit seeking to foreclose on property owned by defendants the Estates of Charles E. Fecteau and June M. Fecteau, as described in Exhibit B to the Complaint. Charles Fecteau passed away on July 6, 2008; his wife June Fecteau died on June 5, 2010. (Compl., Exs. E, F (dkt. ##1-5, 1-6.) The property appears to have been abandoned. (Compl. (dkt. #1) ¶ 10; see also Declaration of Barbara Oswald (“Oswald Decl.”), Ex. A (dkt. #24-1).) Defendant Barry Fecteau is the son and potential heir of Charles and June Fecteau. The Estate defendants and Barry Fecteau all waived service, making their answers due on May 27, 2014. (See dkt. ##3, 4, 5.) Plaintiff also provided service by publication in newspaper to the unknown heirs and devisees of Charles and June Fecteau. (Dkt. ##9, 16.) To date, all defendants, both known and unknown, have failed to appear, answer or otherwise defend this lawsuit. Accordingly, the clerk of court entered default against all defendants. (Dkt. #8, 19.)

The court held a hearing on September 24, 2014. Again, defendants failed to appear or contest this matter. Because the clerk of court has entered default against defendant, the court accepts as true all of the factual allegations in the complaint, except those relating to damages. In re Catt, 368 F.3d 789, 793 (7th Cir. 2004).

Plaintiff now seeks: (1) a default judgment in the amount of $143,800.42 (Amended Attachment A (dkt. #27)); and (2) in default of payment, that all legal right, title and interest that defendants have in the property be sold at a public sale in accordance with 28 U.S.C. §§ 2001-2003. In support, plaintiff previously submitted the declaration of John Holler, a contract employee for the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development's ("HUD") Single Family Housing division, who works with loans executed under the Home Equity Conversion Mortgage loan program. (Dkt. #23.) Holler avers that (1) on October 24, 2003, Charles and June Fecteau executed a promissory note with Wells Fargo Home Mortgage in the sum of $168,000; (2) the mortgage on the promissory note was recorded in Portage County real estate records; (3) on or about August 5, 2008, Wells Fargo conveyed and assigned its interest in the note and mortgage to HUD and recorded that assignment; and (4) as of September 16, 2014, there was $142,764.20, reflecting principal, interest, service fees and advances for tax and insurance payments, due and owing on the note. (Id.) The court finds plaintiff's submission sufficient to establish that: (1) the United States (through HUD) is the owner and holder of the promissory note and (2) defendants owe $142,764.20 on that note. In addition, plaintiff seeks costs in the total amount of $1,036.22 (Oswald Decl. (dkt. #24) ¶ 16), which the court finds well-documented.

Plaintiff also asks the court to order sale of the mortgaged Real Estate at a public auction. Title 28 U.S.C. § 2001 permits the public or private sale of realty after notice that complies with 28 U.S.C. § 2002. The court has reviewed and approved the proposed judgment of foreclosure and sale filed by plaintiff, which provides for notice by publication.

Having provided sufficient evidence of the amounts owed under the note and its right to execute against the property to satisfy that debt pursuant to the mortgage,

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that:

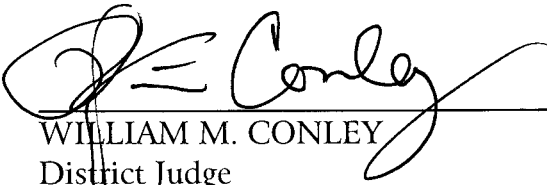

- (1) Plaintiff the United States of America's motion for default judgment (dkt. #20) is GRANTED;
- (2) there is now due and owing to plaintiff as of and including September 16, 2014, the sum of $143,800.42, as set forth in Attachment A of this Order;

to plaintiff the amount of judgment, together with interest from the date of judgment at the rate set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 1961(a), or so much thereof as the monies derived from the sale will pay, and take receipts therefore; and the surplus money, if any, shall be subject to further order;

- (5) if the proceeds of the Real Estate sale be insufficient to pay the amounts owed by judgment, the United States Marshal shall specify the amount of said deficiency in his report of sale and a deficiency judgment shall be entered by the Clerk of Court in that amount;

- (7) the defendants and each of them, their heirs, successors and assigns, and all persons claiming under them or either of them after the filing of notice of the pendency of this action, be forever barred and foreclosed of all right, title, interest and equity of redemption in said mortgaged Real Estate;
- (8) plaintiff may pay any taxes or insurance premiums on the mortgaged Real Estate now due, or which shall hereafter become due before the sale, and have a lien on said premises for the amount so paid with interest from the date of judgment at the rate set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 1961(a); and in the event any such payments are made, plaintiff may obtain an order at the foot of this judgment directing that the amounts so paid, with interest, be likewise paid from the proceeds of the sale or redemption of the mortgaged Real Estate; and
- (9) the defendants and all persons claiming under them are enjoined from committing waste upon said mortgaged Real Estate and doing any other act that may impair the value of the same.

Entered this 24th day of September, 2014.
