

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA
FIFTH DISTRICT

BRYAN SANTOS,

Appellant,

v.

Case No. 5D18-1318

STATE OF FLORIDA,

Appellee.

_____ /

Opinion filed October 25, 2019

Appeal from the Circuit Court
for Orange County,
Dan Traver, Judge.

James W. Smith, III, of CPLS, P.A.,
Orlando, for Appellant.

Ashley Moody, Attorney General,
Tallahassee, and Andrea K. Totten,
Assistant Attorney General, Daytona
Beach, for Appellee.

PER CURIAM.

Following a hearing held before this Court on September 19, 2019, we have determined that it is appropriate to sanction attorney James W. Smith, III, Florida Bar No. 96438, of Orlando, Florida, for his failure in this case to abide by the Florida Rules of Appellate Procedure, failure to respond to this Court's orders, and for filing a motion or brief that was frivolous or filed in bad faith. The sanctions will be imposed by a separate order.

SANCTIONS IMPOSED.

ORFINGER, EDWARDS and HARRIS, JJ., concur.
