

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA
FIFTH DISTRICT

NOT FINAL UNTIL TIME EXPIRES TO FILE MOTION FOR REHEARING AND DISPOSITION THEREOF IF FILED

JACQUELINE BOWERS,

Appellant,

v.

Case No. 5D22-730

LT Case No. 2014-DR-001089

HAROLD N. SMITH,

Appellee.

---

Opinion filed November 7, 2022

Nonfinal Appeal from the Circuit Court for Flagler County,
Christopher France, Judge.

William S. Graessle, of William S.
Graessle, P.A., Jacksonville, for Appellant.

Meaghan K. Marro, of Marro
Law, P.A., Plantation, for Appellee.

PER CURIAM.

Former Wife appeals an order rendered February 8, 2022, suspending her timesharing.<sup>1</sup> On appeal, Former Wife argues, inter alia, that this order is in error because it granted relief not requested by Former Husband, citing Golden v. Bass, 194 So. 3d 1080, 1082 (Fla. 1st DCA 2016). We agree and therefore reverse this order.

We affirm the order transferring venue without further discussion.

AFFIRMED in part; REVERSED in part; and REMANDED.

EVANDER, WALLIS and EISNAUGLE, JJ., concur.

---

<sup>1</sup> This Court has jurisdiction. See Fla. R. App. P. 9.130(a)(3)(C)(iii)(b).