

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA
FIFTH DISTRICT

JULY TERM 2003

JEFFREY DAVIS,

Appellant,

v.

CASE NO. 5D02-1935

STATE OF FLORIDA,

Appellee.

---

Opinion filed October 10, 2003.

Appeal from the Circuit Court
for Orange County,
A. Thomas Mihok, Judge.

Jeffrey Davis, Clermont, pro se.

No Appearance for Appellee.

PER CURIAM.

AFFIRMED.<sup>1</sup> See Wright v. State, 28 Fla. L. Weekly S517 (Fla. July 3, 2003) ("Habeas corpus should not be used as a vehicle for presenting issues which should have been raised at trial and on appeal or in postconviction proceedings").

SHARP, W., THOMPSON and ORFINGER, JJ., concur.

<sup>1</sup> We note that this court has precluded Davis from filing any additional pro se appeals, motions, or petitions pertaining to his convictions and sentences in case No. 00-7844, unless reviewed by an attorney licensed to practice in the State of Florida, see Davis v. State, 852 So. 2d 963 (Fla. 5th DCA 2003); however, Davis filed this appeal prior to issuance of that mandate.
