

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA
FIFTH DISTRICT

JULY TERM 2013

NOT FINAL UNTIL TIME EXPIRES TO FILE MOTION FOR REHEARING AND DISPOSITION THEREOF IF FILED

SHARRON D. DESHAZIER,

Appellant,

v.

Case No. 5D12-2636

STATE OF FLORIDA,

Appellee.

_____ /

Opinion filed December 13, 2013

Appeal from the Circuit Court
for Orange County,
Marc Lubet, Judge.

James S. Purdy, Public Defender, and
Rose M. Levering, Assistant Public
Defender, Daytona Beach, for Appellant.

Pamela Jo Bondi, Attorney General,
Tallahassee, and L. Charlene Matthews,
Assistant Attorney General, Daytona
Beach, for Appellee.

PER CURIAM.

AFFIRMED. See Martinez v. State, 981 So. 2d 449, 456 (Fla. 2008) (erroneous self-defense instruction did not constitute fundamental error where self-defense was not defendant's sole, or even primary, defense strategy and self-defense claim was extremely weak); see also Morgan v. State, 38 Fla. L. Weekly D2449 (Fla. 5th DCA Nov. 22, 2013); Cancel v. State, 985 So. 2d 1127 (Fla. 5th DCA 2008).
