

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL
FIRST DISTRICT, STATE OF FLORIDA

DANIEL L. WILLIAMS,

Appellant,

v.

STATE OF FLORIDA,

Appellee.

NOT FINAL UNTIL TIME EXPIRES TO FILE MOTION FOR REHEARING AND DISPOSITION THEREOF IF FILED

CASE NO. 1D05-1635

Opinion filed August 15, 2006.

An appeal from the Circuit Court for Duval County.

Michael R. Weatherby, Judge

Nancy A. Daniels, Public Defender, and M. Gene Stephens, Assistant Public Defender, Tallahassee, for Appellant.

Charlie Crist, Attorney General and Anne C. Conley, Assistant Attorneys General, Tallahassee, for Appellee.

PER CURIAM.

Appellant Williams, convicted of three counts of sexual battery and one count of lewd and lascivious molestation, seeks reversal, raising three issues on appeal. We affirm the convictions and sentences and briefly address the first issue.

A state witness, Lila Choulat, testified as an expert witness regarding examinations in sexual assault cases. As part of her direct examination, Ms. Choulat read from a publication known as The Color Atlas of Sexual Assault in order to explain certain aspects of her testimony. Had the defense raised a timely and specific objection to this, the trial court would have erred in allowing Ms. Choulat to read from the publication. See Tallahassee Mem'1 Reg'1 Med. Ctr. v. Mitchell, 407 So. 2d 601(Fla. 1st DCA 1981). Upon review of this record, however, we have determined that defense counsel failed to raise such a timely and specific objection. See § 924.051(1)(b), Fla. Stat. (2005) (requiring that objection to evidence be timely raised before, and ruled upon, by the trial court, and must sufficiently and fairly apprise the trial court of the specific legal argument or ground upon which it is based).

AFFIRMED.
