

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL
FIRST DISTRICT, STATE OF FLORIDA

RODNEY E. LOVETT,

Petitioner,

v.

STATE OF FLORIDA,

Respondent.

NOT FINAL UNTIL TIME EXPIRES TO FILE MOTION FOR REHEARING AND DISPOSITION THEREOF IF FILED.

CASE NO. 1D06-2512

Opinion filed November 3, 2006.

Petition Seeking Belated Appeal -- Original Jurisdiction.

Rodney E. Lovett, pro se, Petitioner.

Charlie Crist, Attorney General, and Alan R. Dakan, Assistant Attorney General, Tallahassee, for Respondent.

PER CURIAM.

By timely petition, Rodney E. Lovett seeks a belated appeal of a September 27,
2005, order dismissing his motion to correct illegal sentence in Escambia County

Circuit Court case number 99-4462. Upon consideration of the institutional mail logs reflecting that petitioner received no legal mail in the 30 days following rendition of this order, the petition seeking belated appeal is granted. Upon issuance of mandate in this cause, a copy of this opinion shall be provided to the clerk of the circuit court for treatment as a notice of appeal. See Fla. R. App. P. 9.141(c)(5)(D).
