

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL
FIRST DISTRICT, STATE OF FLORIDA

PAMELA CRADY,

Petitioner,

v.

NOT FINAL UNTIL TIME EXPIRES TO FILE MOTION FOR REHEARING AND DISPOSITION THEREOF IF FILED

CASE NO. 1D12-4555

TAMMY VARA,

Respondent.

_____ /

Opinion filed November 26, 2012.

Petition for Writ of Prohibition -- Original Jurisdiction.

Scott A. Snavelly of Scott A. Snavelly, P.A., Tallahassee, for Petitioner.

No appearance for Respondent.

PER CURIAM.

The petitioner, Pamela Crady, seeks a writ of prohibition to prevent the trial judge from presiding over proceedings in circuit court. We have reviewed the verified motions to disqualify and conclude the motions were legally sufficient and should have been granted. Accordingly, we grant the writ of prohibition and remand the cause to the circuit court with directions that the motions for disqualification be granted and a new judge assigned to preside over the cause.

PETITION GRANTED.

BENTON, C.J., PADOVANO and MARSTILLER, JJ., CONCUR.
