

In the Supreme Court of Georgia

Decided: May 17, 2017

S11Y0915. IN THE MATTER OF NAKATA S. SMITH FITCH.
S16Y0079. IN THE MATTER OF NAKATA S. SMITH FITCH.

PER CURIAM.

This Court having reviewed the Petition for Reinstatement submitted by the Office of the General Counsel of the State Bar of Georgia, and it appearing that Nakata S. Smith Fitch has complied with the conditions for the termination of her disciplinary suspension that was imposed by this Court, see In the Matter of Smith Fitch, 298 Ga. 379 (782 SE2d 40) (2016), and In the Matter of Smith Fitch, 289 Ga. 253 (710 SE2d 563) (2011), it is hereby ordered that Nakata S. Smith Fitch be reinstated to the practice of law in the State of Georgia.¹

Reinstated. All the Justices concur.

¹ Though we lift the disciplinary suspension imposed by this Court, Smith Fitch must still, inter alia, relieve herself of the administrative suspension imposed by the State Bar, pay any required membership fees so that she may be reinstated as an active member of the State Bar in good standing, and must submit to, pay for, and implement the recommendations of an evaluation by State Bar's Law Practice Management Program within six months of reinstatement.
