COURT OF APPEAL, FIRST CIRCUIT

JENTRELL GLOVER

NO. 2014 CW 1138

VERSUS

TERRY BROWN, CINTAS
CORPORATION, AND DISCOVER
PROPERTY & CASUALTY
INSURANCE COMPANY

AUG 19 2014

In Re: Terry Brown, Cintas Corporation, and Discover Property & Casualty Insurance, applying for supervisory writs, 19th Judicial District Court, Parish of East Baton Rouge, No. 610580.

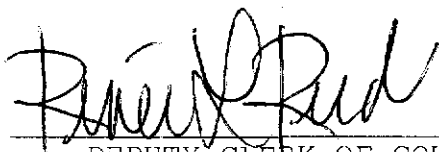

BEFORE: PARRO, KUHN, PETTIGREW, McDONALD, AND CRAIN, JJ.

WRIT DENIED. The trial court has not abused its wide discretion in denying relators' motion to compel the independent medical examination of the plaintiff by Dr. Sandra Weitz.

Parro and McDonald, JJ., dissent and would grant the writ and reverse the trial court's August 4, 2014 judgment. Relators have demonstrated good cause for requiring the independent medical examination, pursuant to La. Code Civ. P. art. 1464, in order to address issues pertaining to the plaintiff's pain management treatment.
