OCTOBER 25, 2021

In Re: Cerrick Williams, and Renata Williams, individually and on behalf of their minor child, Chance Williams, and Plaintiff, Cedrick Williams and Cameron Williams, applying for supervisory writs, 19th Judicial District Court, Parish of East Baton Rouge, No. 681352.

BEFORE: WHIPPLE, C.J., WELCH, AND THERIOT, JJ.

WRIT GRANTED WITH ORDER. The district court's August 18, 2021 judgment granting the peremptory exception of prescription and dismissing all claims of plaintiffs, Cerrick Williams and Renata Williams, individually and on behalf of their minor child, Chance Williams, and plaintiffs, Cedric and Cameron Williams, against defendant, City of Baton Rouge/Parish of East Baton Rouge, is a final, appealable judgment. See La. Code Civ. P. art. 1915(A). Therefore, the writ application is granted for the limited purpose of remanding the case to the district court with instructions to grant an appeal to plaintiffs pursuant to the notice of intent to seek supervisory writs. See In Re Howard, 541 So.2d 195 (La. 1989) (per curiam). In the event plaintiffs seek to appeal the district court's judgment, they shall submit a new order for appeal to the district court within thirty days of this order. Additionally, a copy of this court's order is to be included in the appellate record.
