KENNEBEC, ss.

SUPERIOR COURT
CIVIL ACTION
DOCKET NO. CV-07-80

N.Y. KENN-7/11/08

DOROTHY M. FISH,

Plaintiff

v.

JUDGMENT

ROBERT E. CLARK and CLARK'S CUSTOM
CABINETRY, INC.,

Defendant

By stipulation filed 8/11/08, the parties stipulated to entry of a judgment against the defendants by the court after jury-waived trial. The plaintiff appeared with counsel at the trial on 5/29/09. Neither the defendants nor defense counsel appeared. See Letter dated 4/29/09.

The plaintiff is 85 years old and has a life expectancy of approximately six years. Before the car accident of January 19, 2006, she was a healthy, vibrant, and independent woman. Her many activities included bingo, swimming, walking, reading, and driving. She provided the primary care for her beloved husband, Larry.

As a result of the accident, she sustained a severe comminuted bicondylar right tibial plateau fracture; rib fractures on the right and left side of the fifth, sixth, and seventh ribs; an elbow laceration; and evidence of a closed head injury. She underwent surgeries and physical therapy during her admissions to the hospital and rehabilitation centers and endured severe pain, suffering, and emotional distress. Her husband was admitted to a rehabilitation center as well because the plaintiff was unable to care for him. He died on February 9, 2007.

The plaintiff was required to sell the retirement home in Readfield where she and her husband lived. She lives and will continue to live at an assisted living facility; she chose a facility in Massachusetts in order to be closer to her daughter.

The plaintiff is able to use a walker for only a short distance and in general is relegated to a wheelchair. She requires 24/7 care. This accident took from her nearly everything of meaning to her. She mourns the loss of the independence that was fundamental to her joy of living. Although at trial she labeled herself a "wet blanket," she is, even in her distressed circumstances, a gracious and thoughtful woman.

Based on the testimony of the plaintiff and her daughter, Heidi Quinlivan, and plaintiffs' exhibits 1-9 and 11-13, the court concludes that the plaintiff proved by a preponderance of the evidence that as a result of the 2006 accident (Pl.'s Exs. 2-3), she sustained serious and permanent bodily injuries (Pl.'s Exs. 6-7, 11-13); significant and enduring pain and suffering, emotional distress, and loss of enjoyment of life that will continue into the future (Pl.'s Exs.1, 4-5); and medical bills (Pl.'s Ex. 8).

The plaintiff has proved that she is entitled to recover damages in the amount of $1,448,691.21.

The entry is

Judgment is entered in favor of Plaintiff Dorothy M. Fish and against Defendants Robert E. Clark and Clark's Custom Cabinetry, Inc. on the Plaintiff's Amended Complaint in the amount of $1,448,691.21, plus prejudgment interest at the rate of 5.99%, post-judgment interest at the rate of 6.40%, and costs.
