Plaintiffs' motion for sanctions for vexatious proceedings in Docket Nos. 353321 and 356520 is DENIED at this time. It is noted this order does not proscribe plaintiffs from relying on or asserting the facts and conduct alleged to have been committed by defendants in any future pleading or motion which seeks relief from this or any other court should additional conduct take place in the future which causes plaintiffs to file another motion seeking relief similar to that sought in the instant motion.
