COURT OF APPEALS

BRENDA WIERSMA,

Plaintiff-Appellant,

v

GEORGE HANNA, LINDA HANNA, and JOE
HANNA,

Defendants-Appellees.

No. 202425

Ottawa Circuit Court

LC No. 96-024428 NO

Before: Holbrook, Jr., P.J., and Wahls and Cavanagh, JJ.

MEMORANDUM.

Plaintiff appeals as of right from the summary dismissal of her premise liability action pursuant to MCR 2.116(C)(10). We affirm.

Plaintiff challenges the propriety of the trial court's grant of summary disposition. The trial court relied on deposition excerpts provided by the parties when it decided the merits of defendants' motions. These deposition excerpts were not provided to this Court. Because plaintiff has failed to provide the documentation considered by the trial court as required by MCR 7.210 and because any determination of the merits of plaintiff's appellate challenges would necessitate a review of this documentation, plaintiff's failure to provide this documentation waives appellate review of her challenge. People v Anderson, 209 Mich App 527, 535; 531 NW2d 780 (1995); Myers v Jarnac, 189 Mich App 436, 444; 474 NW2d 302 (1991).

Affirmed.
