Kalamazoo Circuit Court

Family Division

LC No. 97-000091 NA

Before: White, P.J., Markey and Wilder, JJ.

MEMORANDUM.

Respondent-appellant appeals as of right from the family court order terminating her parental rights to the minor children under MCL 712A.19b(3)(g); MSA 27.3178(598.19b)(3)(g). We affirm.

The family court did not err in terminating respondent-appellant's parental rights where respondent-appellant failed to comply with the conditions of the Adrianson agreement. See In re Adrianson, 105 Mich App 300; 306 NW2d 487 (1981). Moreover, in pleading no contest to the allegations in the termination petition, respondent-appellant acknowledged that the plea agreement was in her children's best interests. The court also specifically found, in both the order taking respondent-appellant's plea under advisement as well as the order terminating parental rights, that it was in the children's best interests to terminate respondent-appellant's parental rights. Accordingly, respondent-appellant's claim that the court failed to consider the children's best interests is without merit.

Affirmed.
