Wayne Circuit Court

Family Division

LC No. 95-335416

Before: Jansen, P.J., and Hoekstra and J. R. Cooper*, JJ.

MEMORANDUM.

Respondent-appellant appeals as of right from the family court order terminating her parental rights to the minor children under MCL 712A.19b(3)(c)(i), (g), and (j); MSA 27.3178(598.19b)(3)(c)(i), (g) and (j). We affirm.

We reject respondent-appellant's claim that the court erred in terminating her parental rights because petitioner failed to make reasonable efforts to reunite her with her family. Contrary to what respondent-appellant argues, the record does not reveal that she substantially complied with her treatment plan or that her caseworker was unaware of her progress. Rather, the record indicates that numerous services were offered to respondent-appellant, but that respondent-appellant failed to take advantage of the services offered and, most significantly, failed to follow through with drug treatment and remain drug free. Accordingly, respondent-appellant's claim is without merit. See In re Springer,

* Circuit judge, sitting on the Court of Appeals by assignment.

172 Mich App 466, 474-475; 432 NW2d 342 (1988). The trial court did not clearly err in finding that the statutory grounds for termination were established by clear and convincing evidence. MCR 5.974(I); In re Miller, 433 Mich 331, 337; 445 NW2d 161 (1989).

Affirmed.
